THE FUTURE IS NOW AT TCU

The 2008 season marks a new era in TCU football with the opening of the $13 million Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center (above). The 40,000 square-foot facility provides the Horned Frogs with a new team meeting room, academic space and a community area. Six suites and 250 club seats will give fans unique views of historic Amon G. Carter Stadium. Additional major changes loom on the horizon as a feasibility study is underway for a proposed renovation of Amon G. Carter (below). The project received a lead gift of $15 million from the Amon Carter Foundation in spring 2008.

MEDIA GUIDE CREDITS

The 2008 TCU football media guide is a production of the Horned Frog Athletics Media Relations Office.

The publication was written by Director of Media Relations Mark Cohen with layout and design assistance from Assistant Director Andy Anderson. Assistant Directors Brandie Davidson and Joe Monaco, Coordinator Matt Hoover and former graduate assistant Kyle Seay each provided editorial assistance. Special thanks go to student assistant Jack Lawit for assistance with guide design and production. Credit is also directed to all past TCU media relations directors and former Director of Communications Drew Myers for their efforts in laying the foundation for this guide.

Photography by Vladimir Cherry, Linda Kaye, Anthony Vasser and Scott Bjornlie. Frogs in the pros photos were provided by respective NFL media relations departments. Facility renderings provided by HKS Sports and Entertainment.

The 2008 TCU football media guide may be purchased at the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office for $20 plus $3 shipping.

ON THE COVERS

TCU utilized the talents of Concussion Advertising for the marketing campaign, "Get With the Program." Design for both the covers and section divider pages was provided by designer Charlie Howlett, Chief Creative Officer Andrew Yanez and Creative Director Derek Johnson with photography by Dick Clintsman.

TCU ATHLETICS MEDIA RELATIONS

MARK COHEN, DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS

Athletics Media Relations Director Mark Cohen is in his fourth year at TCU after working the previous 16 years at Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C.

Cohen was hired as Wofford's sports information director in 1989 by current TCU Athletics Director Danny Morrison, who was then the Terriers' athletics director. Cohen was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations in January 1992 and to Associate Athletics Director in September 1996.

After graduating from Cal State Fullerton in 1988, Cohen began his career in Texas as an assistant in the University of Houston sports information office. He also worked in various game day capacities with the Houston Astros, Houston Oilers and Houston Rockets.

While earning a B.A. degree in communications and a minor in business administration at Cal State Fullerton, Cohen served as the media relations director for the 1988 Titan baseball team which advanced to the College World Series.

Under Cohen's direction, Wofford's football media guide covers received "Best in the Nation" honors three times from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The Terriers' football game program covers were also named "Best in the Nation" on three occasions. Cohen has received a total of 11 "Citations for Excellence in Publications."

Cohen and his wife, Sarah, have three sons: David (15), Adam (13) and Steven (9).

ANDY ANDERSON, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS

Andy Anderson is in his second year at TCU as Assistant Director of Media Relations. Anderson serves as the primary media relations contact for women's basketball and men's tennis and secondary contact for football.

A native of Cozad, Neb., Anderson previously worked three years as both a graduate assistant and intern at Nebraska. While at NU, he was the primary contact for the men's and women's track and field and cross country programs while also assisting with media relations operations for the Husker football team.

Prior to working at Nebraska, Anderson held season-long internships with both the Colorado Rockies and Pacific Coast League office. He also worked for a year at Colorado College following a four-year stint as a student assistant.

Anderson graduated from Colorado College in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in English.

SEASON PREVIEW

HORNED FROG OFFENSE

Led by quarterbacks Andy Dalton and Marcus Jackson, TCU returns eight starters on offense. Included in that total are the Horned Frogs' top-two rushers in Joseph Turner and Aaron Brown as well as four starters on the offensive line. TCU placed third in the Mountain West Conference last season with an average of 386.6 yards per game in total offense.

QUARTERBACK

In Andy Dalton (6-3, 210, So.) and Marcus Jackson (6-1, 216, Jr.), TCU has two quarterbacks who give the Frogs an opportunity to be successful. Dalton set single-season Horned Frog records for completions (222) and attempts (371) while finishing second in passing yards (2,459). His 59.8 completion percentage placed fourth. Dalton threw just two interceptions in his final 96 attempts with one of those picks coming on a Hail Mary. He was the Texas Bowl Most Valuable Player and a Freshman All-American. A native of Katy, Texas, Dalton became a running threat late in the season. Over the final four games, he led TCU in rushing twice as he averaged 52.5 yards per contest on a 5.0 per carry mark. He ran for five touchdowns on the year with four of the scores coming in the last four contests. Having a year of experience under his belt should enable Dalton to make all of his teammates better. Pushing Dalton for the starting job is Jackson, who came off the bench to lead the Frogs on touchdown drives in three of the last five games. Jackson completed 15-of-21 (71.4 percent) passes over his final three contests in 2007. He had just one interception in 69 attempts on the year. The Houston native placed fifth on the Frogs with 187 yards rushing. Jackson made his collegiate debut in the 2006 season opener when he rallied the Frogs to a 17-7 win at Baylor. The fall arrival of newcomer Yogi Gallegos (6-0, 182, Fr.) gives TCU three scholarship quarterbacks on its roster.

RUNNING BACK

Running back is one of the deepest positions for the Frogs in 2008. Aaron Brown (6-1, 196, Sr.), last year's Preseason Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year, is primed for his best season after enduring an injury-plagued 2007 campaign. Despite being limited to action in parts of nine games, Brown placed second on the Frogs with 490 yards rushing on a 4.6 per carry average. The Katy, Texas, native is only the 12th player in TCU history to surpass 2,000 career yards rushing (2,049). Brown was fourth on the Frogs with 24 receptions last season. Joseph Turner (6-1, 226, Jr.), last year's leading rusher with 597 yards, did not take part in spring drills after suffering a knee injury in the Texas Bowl win over Houston. He is expected to be ready for preseason camp in August. Selected by his teammates as TCU's 2007 Offensive Most Valuable Player, Turner closed the regular season by rushing for 226 yards and four touchdowns on 33 carries in a 45-33 win at San Diego State. It was the most yards by a Frog since 2002 and the 14th-best effort in TCU history. Like Brown, Turner was slowed by injury throughout last season. The Frogs were 6-2 in games that Turner was healthy throughout the contest. TCU was 5-0 when he rushed for at least 56 yards. Chris Smith (5-11, 231, Jr.) was converted from fullback to tailback in spring practice and was very impressive. Redshirt freshmen Jai Cavness (5-8, 175, RFr.) and Jercell Fort (5-11, 175, RFr.) will also compete for playing time at tailback. Fort, a Los Angeles native, was moved from cornerback midway through last season. With the graduation of William Jackson, Justin Watts (5-10, 195, Sr.) enters the fall at the top of the depth chart at fullback. A very steady tailback last season, Watts was huge for the Frogs in the Texas Bowl victory over Houston. With Brown and Turner unavailable due to injury, Watts rushed for a team-high 46 yards on 12 carries. His 7-yard fourth-quarter scoring run provided the go-ahead points at Reliant Stadium. Behind Watts is converted linebacker Luke Shivers (6-0, 205, RFr.).

WIDE RECEIVER

Despite not having a returning starter, the wide receiver position could be a strength for TCU in 2008. The Frogs have a nice mix of skilled veterans and talented young players. After closing last season very strong, Walter Bryant (6-4, 206, Sr.) is primed for an outstanding senior year. The San Angelo, Texas, native has increased his size and strength and been a leader in off-season workouts. Bryant placed third on the Frogs with 27 receptions, including a career-best seven grabs in the regular-season finale at San Diego State. Joining Bryant in first-team positions at receiver are Bart Johnson (6-1, 190, So.), Jeremy Kerley (5-10, 185, So.) and Jimmy Young (6-1, 200, So.). Johnson made several big plays for the Frogs at both receiver and on special teams last season. Five of his six receptions came in the fourth quarter. Johnson scored three touchdowns on just seven touches. He had receiving scores at Wyoming and BYU in addition to reaching the end zone with a return of a blocked punt versus SMU. The only true freshman to see action on offense for the Frogs last season, Kerley continues to emerge as a big-play weapon. Five of his nine receptions on the year came in the season's final two games. A former prep quarterback, Kerley had 27-yard pass completions in back-to-back contests versus Utah and New Mexico. Just a sophomore, Young is on pace to become one of the top receivers in the Mountain West Conference. He had 23 catches a year ago for a 14.1-yard average, best among the Frogs' top-six receivers. Young posted TCU's first 100-yard receiving day in nearly two years when he totaled 110 yards on three receptions, including a 70-yard touchdown catch, in the 38-36 win at Stanford. Ryan Christian (5-11, 188, Jr.) is back at receiver, his original position at TCU, after moving to tailback last season. The local product from Aledo had 18 receptions out of the backfield while finishing third on the team with 321 yards rushing. Tyler Luttrell (6-1, 195, So.) did not see game action last season due to injury but figures prominently in the Frogs' 2008 plans. Curtis Clay (6-0, 180, So.) and William Cage (6-4, 202, Sr.) are returning lettermen who add depth to the receiver position. Redshirt freshman Jonathan Jones (6-4, 197, RFr.) has outstanding size and will push for immediate playing time.

Shae Reagan

Blake Schlueter

TIGHT END

Returning starter Shae Reagan (6-4, 261, Sr.) is a big-play weapon and one of the top tight ends in the Mountain West Conference. The former TCU quarterback ranks third on the Frogs' career list for average yards per reception at 19.7. Hampered by injury last season, Reagan had 11 catches for 193 yards (17.5 average). He closed the campaign with a career-best three grabs in the Texas Bowl win over Houston. Evan Frosch (6-4, 235, So.) started three games in 2007 with all five of his receptions coming in TCU victories. He'll enter the spring in a second-team position behind Reagan. Logan Brock (6-3, 230, RFr.) will push for playing time after redshirting last season.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The TCU offensive line returns four starters, and with an additional year of experience under its belt, is expected to be much improved this season. Returning All-Mountain West Conference center and preseason All-American Blake Schlueter (6-3, 284, Sr.) anchors the line. The Ganado, Texas, native has started all but one game the last two seasons and was a first-team selection on Dave Campbell's Texas Football 2007 All-Texas College Team. For the second straight season, he appears on the watch list for the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Schlueter is backed up by veteran Tyler Marrou (6-5, 268, Jr.) and Jake Kirkpatrick (6-3, 290, So.).

Starting tackles Marshall Newhouse (6-3, 317, Jr.) and Nic Richmond (6-8, 298, Jr.) both return after starting all 13 games a year ago. Newhouse, an honorable-mention All-MWC pick, topped the Frogs in knockdown blocks and overall blocking grade from his left tackle position. He is on pace to being one of the top TCU linemen in recent years. The Dallas native was the only true freshman to play on offense in 2006. Junior college transfer Zach Roth (6-6, 310, Jr.) and Jeff Olson (6-4, 253, RFr.) will add depth behind Newhouse. After playing very well down the stretch last season, Marcus Cannon (6-5, 319, So.) will push Richmond for his starting job on the right side. Cannon could also see action at guard. Giles Montgomery (6-5, 295, Sr.) is a returning starter at right guard. Josh Karlin (6-4, 280, Jr.), who lettered in a reserve role, is behind Montgomery. Karlin and Preston Phillips (6-6, 293, Sr.) will battle for the starting job at left guard vacated by the graduation of Matty Lindner. Phillips made his first collegiate start in the Frogs' 37-0 win over New Mexico last season. He is a two-year letterman. Josh Vernon (6-2, 295, So.) and Spencer Thompson (6-4, 270, RFr.) will compete for playing time at left guard. Heath Raetz (6-5, 315, Sr.), sidelined most of the 2007 campaign by injury, also figures prominently into the mix at guard.

HORNED FROG DEFENSE

The Horned Frogs welcome back six starters on defense, including three-time All-MWC linebackers Jason Phillips and Robert Henson. Safety Steven Hodge anchors the secondary. Defensive tackle James Vess, a key starter in 2006 and an All-MWC candidate, returns to action after sitting out last season. TCU placed among the top 15 nationally last season in scoring defense, run defense, pass defense efficiency, sacks and total defense.

Cody Moore

Daryl Washington

Steven Coleman

DEFENSIVE LINE

Despite losing highly decorated ends Tommy Blake and Chase Ortiz to graduation, the TCU defensive front is loaded with talented players ready to fill their shoes. Bolstering the front is the return of defensive tackle James Vess (6-3, 282, Sr.), who sat out last season. With the double teams that he'll command, Vess will make the Frog linebackers better. Vess played extremely well down the stretch in the 2006 campaign, twice being named TCU's Defensive Player of the Week and recording four sacks in the final seven games. He is an All-MWC caliber player. Behind Vess is returning letterman John Fonua (5-10, 270, Sr.). Fonua, who came to the Frogs as a junior college transfer, played in all 13 games last season and totaled 15 tackles. True freshman Jeremy Coleman (6-3, 270, Fr.) could make an immediate impact at defensive tackle. Veteran Cody Moore (6-1, 292, Sr.) is a mainstay on the TCU defensive line. He started all 13 games last season and totaled 5.5 tackles for a loss. Behind Moore are Cory Grant (6-2, 303, So.), Kelly Griffin (6-1, 280, So.) and Henry Niutei (6-4, 292, So.). Griffin started all 13 games last season in becoming the first true freshman to start in the seven-year tenure of head coach Gary Patterson. Griffin was an honorable-mention Freshman All-American. Grant totaled two sacks in his first season of competition. Matt Panfil (6-2, 232, Sr.) is the lone senior among the Frogs' six defensive ends and will occupy the starting job on the right side. The local product from North Crowley High School in Fort Worth played very well in starting six games last season. He placed among the Frogs' top-10 tacklers with 37 stops. Braylon Broughton (6-6, 250, RFr.), who has a tremendous upside, will back up Panfil. Jerry Hughes (6-2, 248, Jr.), who played well in a reserve role last season with 29 tackles, will move into a first-team role at left end. Hughes made his first collegiate start in the 37-0 win over New Mexico. Pushing Hughes for playing time are Wayne Daniels (6-2, 240, So.) and Clarence Leatch (6-4, 238, So.). Daniels saw action as a true freshman in 2006 before taking a redshirt last year. Leatch played in two games last season.

LINEBACKERS

In keeping with an annual tradition, the linebacker corps is again a strength of the TCU football team. Jason Phillips (6-1, 234, Sr.) and Robert Henson (6-1, 228, Sr.), both three-time All-MWC selections, have played as many snaps as any linebacker duo in the nation. They are joined by Daryl Washington (6-3, 228, Jr.) to form an extremely talented trio. Phillips, TCU's top tackler with 87 stops, is a preseason All-American. Dave Campbell's Texas Football has tabbed him as the state's 2008 Defensive Player of the Year. He appeared on watch lists last season for the Rotary Lombardi Award and Dick Butkus Award as well as being named the state's Best Linebacker by Dave Campbell's. A native of Waller, Texas, Phillips has started all 38 games the last three seasons with his 231 career tackles the best among active Frogs. Despite starting just one game last season, Henson placed fifth on the Frogs with 66 tackles. He became the first Frog linebacker since 1995 to return an interception for a touchdown when he went 58 yards with a pick in a win over SMU. Henson's 199 career stops rank second for current Frogs behind only Phillips. Washington totaled 32 tackles and played extremely well in a reserve role. Like Henson, he is also an impact player on special teams. Washington blocked three punts last season, in a span of just six games, to tie for the national lead. Stephen Hodge returned one of the blocks for a touchdown against Utah. Tank Carder (6-2, 215, RFr.) and Kris Gardner (6-1, 220, RFr.) will push for playing time and add depth. Carder has made unbelievable strides and is projected as a future impact player. Gardner made the switch last season from tight end to linebacker.

SECONDARY

Rafael Priest (5-10, 163, Jr.) and Nick Sanders (5-10, 174, Jr.) have started all 26 games the last two seasons and will be in their third year playing alongside each other at cornerback. Priest was an honorable-mention All-MWC selection in 2007. He ranked among the league leaders with 13 passes defended, including a team-best 10 break-ups. The Dallas native tied for the TCU lead with three interceptions. Sanders, an honorable-mention Freshman All-American in 2006, totaled 39 tackles to go with four PBUs and an interception. Alex Ibiloye (6-0, 170, So.) and Greg McCoy (5-10, 172, RFr.) will compete for playing time while also adding depth. Ibiloye lettered in a reserve role last season while also contributing on special teams. McCoy was a redshirt in his first season on campus. He has a very promising future at TCU. Newcomer and Tyler Junior College transfer Jason Teague (6-2, 185, Jr.) also figures into the mix. Preseason All-American Stephen Hodge (6-0, 230, Sr.) returns as the starter at strong safety, while the free and weak spots will be marked by a high level of competition. Hodge was last year's national leader in sacks by a defensive back with eight. It was just one shy of TCU's team-high total of nine by Chase Ortiz. Hodge's insertion into the starting lineup prior to a 37-0 win over New Mexico jumpstarted the Frogs to victories in four of their final five games. A native of Tatum, Texas, Hodge recorded seven sacks in the final seven games. His 10.5 tackles for a loss on the season tied Jason Phillips for second on the Frogs. Adding depth behind Hodge are Colin Jones (6-0, 205, So.) and Andy Burrell (6-2, 198, Sr.). Both lettered in reserve roles while contributing on special teams last season. Steven Coleman (6-3, 204, Sr.), who started eight games a year ago, enters the fall in a first-team position at free safety. His three interceptions tied for the team lead. Pushing Coleman for playing time are 2007 redshirts Johnny Fobbs (6-0, 190, RFr.) and Chez Thomas (5-10, 180, RFr.). Fobbs was named TCU's Scout Team Defensive Player of the Year. Veteran Corderra Hunter (6-2, 202, Jr.) came out of the spring as the starter at weak safety. Tejay Johnson (6-1, 195, So.), one of four true freshmen to see action last season, and Tekerrein Cuba (6-4, 197, RFr.) will push Hunter for playing time.

Drew Combs

SPECIAL TEAMS

Snapper Clint Gresham (6-3, 225, Jr.), one of the unsung heroes of the TCU football team, was a walk-on to the Frogs and was rewarded with a scholarship following an impressive 2007 season. With the graduation of three-time All-MWC selection Chris Manfredini, incoming freshman Ross Evans (5-8, 173, Fr.) is expected to handle the placekicking duties this fall. His 37 career field goals, including a pair of 53-yard efforts as a senior, rank second in Texas high school history. Drew Combs (6-3, 225, Sr.) was the Frogs' kickoff specialist last season. Evans will challenge him for those duties. Anson Kelton (6-4, 260, RFR.), from nearby Aledo, will take over as the Frogs' punter. He was a redshirt last season as Derek Wash went on to earn All-MWC accolades. Jeremy Kerley will take over for the graduated Brian Bonner on punt returns. Kerley, a former prep quarterback, will also serve as the Frogs' holder on kicks. Aaron Brown, Jimmy Young and Ryan Christian will handle kickoff returns.

THIS IS TCU

2008 TCU FOOTBALL

WELCOME TO TCU

Welcome to TCU, home of a program that not only produces champions on the field, but also off it. The Horned Frogs own one of the proudest heritages in all of college football, and that winning tradition produced by past generations of some of the game's all-time greats has carried over to today. Advances have been occuring within the program at a rapid rate recently with the opening of newer and better facilities, and the victories continue to pile up. But a championship history is not the lone factor our student-athletes cite for choosing TCU. The Texas Christian University campus, one that continues to commit itself to staying at the forefront of national Universities, is a caring, friendly community that possesses the strengths and choices of a major university, tempered by the humanity of a smaller college. TCU also is located in the heart of the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, and choices for leisure and entertainment abound. So, you're interested in learning more? Flip ahead to see just what makes TCU stand alone in a class by itself.

WHY TCU?

"It's the same reason why I am here--it's because of the people. TCU is a place where you can make a difference. We have a motto as a staff: 'Take young men where they cannot take themselves.' I think TCU allows us to do that."

—Head Coach Gary Patterson on why recruits choose TCU

"I chose to attend TCU because of Coach Patterson's aggressive style of play. Under his system, he teaches you to be like a coach on the field. He pushes you to the limit, and it paid off for me in becoming a fourth-round draft pick. He also does a great job of preparing you for life after football. He teaches you to do the right things and to have a gameplan and strategy beyond two or three years down the road."

—Cincinnati Bengals safety Marvin White

"I came to TCU because the coaches here saw something in me that no other coaches saw. They moved me to linebacker, which worked out pretty well. We win a lot of games here, so it was a good fit for me."

—All-America candidate and starting linebacker Jason Phillips

TCU BY THE NUMBERS

5-1 vs. teams from the state of Texas the last two years.

5-1 vs. Big 12 Conference teams the last two years.

.750 Mountain West Conference win percentage

4 Top-25 finishes the last seven seasons.

3 11-wins seasons since 2003

4 bowl wins since 2002

36 players sent to NFL camps since 2000.

87 percent of players (87 of 105) on roster from the state of Texas

21 of 22 projected starters for 2008 from state of Texas

A RICH HISTORY

Long before Gary Patterson's TCU squads were stringing together double-digit win seasons and bowl victories, the Horned Frogs were piling up wins as a major force in the old Southwest Conference. TCU's most successful decade, the 1930s, saw the program collect a pair of national championships and more wins (84) than any other program in the nation. TCU is the place where college football legends Davey O'Brien (above) and Slingin' Sammy Baugh helped to redefine the quarterback position for the modern era, where Jim Swink (below left) ran wild on opposing defenses in 1955 and Bob Lilly began his NFL Hall of Fame journey. That same high standard has re-emerged for Frog football, as evidenced by college football's 13th-best winning percentage since 2000 (.735), in addition to churning out active NFL stars such as LaDainian Tomlinson and Aaron Schobel (below right).

CHAMPIONSHIP GOALS

Since 2000, TCU owns the 13th-best record among teams in the NCAA's Bowl Subdivision at 72-26 (.735). The Horned Frogs have closed the year with a top-25 ranking and at least 10 wins five times in the last eight seasons. Overall, TCU has made it to nine bowl games in the last 10 years, and each of the last three seasons have concluded with the Frogs hoisting bowl championship trophies. The program also has won four conference titles in the last decade while making a name for itself against some of the nation's top programs. In the Gary Patterson era alone, the Frogs have taken down four ranked opponents in addition to posting 10 victories against BCS conference opponents—Arizona, Baylor (twice), Iowa State, Northwestern (twice), Oklahoma, Stanford, Texas Tech and Vanderbilt.

GAME DAY AT TCU

There is no better place to be on a fall Saturday in Fort Worth than Amon G. Carter Stadium, where the Horned Frogs play in front of one of the most passionate groups of fans in all of college football. The sound of the band... the cheers of the student section... the 15-2 home record over the past three seasons... each contribute to one of the best football atmospheres around. Adding to the electricity of the TCU game day experience is the fact that more often than not, the Frogs are popping the pads at night. All but one of the upcoming season's home games has been scheduled to be played under the lights at Amon Carter, and almost certainly in front of a raucous home crowd.

TCU GAME DAY

HORNED FROG TRADITION

Tradition runs deep at TCU, and begins with the Horned Frog. Some say the frog was chosen because the football practice field was overrun with the small, spiny lizards. Others say its feisty attitude simply matched the tough frontier spirit shown by TCU itself. Other school traditions include TCU's school colors, purple and white. The former represents royalty, the latter a clean game. Swaying while singing the alma mater is a must. So is learning how to do the Horned Frog hand sign. (Make a peace sign. Now fold those two fingers.) And new students may not have any idea what Riff, Ram, Bah Zoo means now, but they'll soon discover that it's one of the oldest cheers in the country. We also blow the 120-decibel Frog Horn—a real live train horn—after every football score.

WHAT THE HECK IS A HORNED FROG?

- The scientific name for this Texas reptile is phrynosoma cornutum; in Greek, phrynos means "a toad" and soma means "body"; in Latin, cornutus means "horned."
- Their primary diet is red harvester ants; they eat 80 to 100 a day.
- The typical horned frog is three to five inches long.
- Horned frogs are cold-blooded and have an unusual pineal gland, resembling a "third eye" on the top of the head, which zoologists believe is part of their system of thermoregulation.
- When angered or frightened, horned frogs can squirt a fine, four-foot stream of blood from their eyes.
- The horned frog was named the State Reptile of Texas in 1992.

TCU TRADITIONS

GOAL SETTING: Prior to every season, a new pyramid of goals dons a wall in the John Justin Athletic Center. Once a player or coach commits to the goals, he signs the pyramid.

FROG ALLEY: Carnival-type atmosphere for fans prior to kickoff; extremely family-friendly and adds a lot of excitement to the game day atmosphere.

BLEACHER CREATURES: Kids get the opportunity to run on the field as the Horned Frogs exit the tunnel.

ALMA MATER: After every game – home or away – the football team joins its fans to sing the alma mater and fight song.

ONE LAST GOODBYE: After their last regular-season practice, the seniors are carried off the field by the underclassmen.

HONORS: With seniors decked out in their tuxedos, the team gets together each year for its celebrated banquet; all seniors receive their framed jerseys to recognize their careers at TCU. In the past, players have also received their bowl/championship rings at this annual event.

HOME OF THE IRON SKILLET

The Iron Skillet is awarded annually to the winner between TCU's annual matchup with cross-town rival SMU.

During the post-World War II college football boom, the student bodies from both schools introduced the traveling trophy. The tradition eventually died before being revived in 1993.

The Frogs have held the trophy for all but one year since 1999, as the Mustangs broke a six-game losing streak to the Frogs in 2005. TCU regained the Skillet with last season's 21-7 victory in Fort Worth.

ALMA MATER

Hail all hail, TCU
Memories Sweet, Comrades True
Light of Faith, Follow Through
Praise to Thee, TCU

RIFF, RAM, BAH ZOO

Riff, Ram, Bah Zoo
Lickety, Lickety, Zoo, Zoo
Who, Wah, Wah, Who Give 'em hell, TCU

FIGHT SONG CHANT

F-R-O-G-S F-I-G-H-T
Purple, White, Horned Frogs Fight
Victory, Victory, Right, Right, Right
Rah, Rah TCU! Rah, Rah, TCU
F-R-O-G-S F-I-G-H-T
Go, Go, Horned Frogs Go
TCU Frogs Fight

FIGHT SONG

We'll raise a song, both loud and long
To cheer our team to victory
For TCU, so tried and true,
We pledge eternal loyalty.
Rah, Rah, TCU!
Fight on boys, fight, with all your might
Roll up the scores for TCU

Hail white and purple flag whose heroes never lag,
Horned Frog, we are all for you!

REGULARS

No bowl season is complete without an appearance by TCU, at least that's what Horned Frog fans have come to expect during Gary Patterson's eight years as head coach. The program has advanced to nine bowl games in the last 10 years overall and, beginning with a 28-19 Sun Bowl win over USC in 1998, claimed six victories. The latest win, last season's 20-13 victory over Houston in the Texas Bowl at the Houston Texans' Reliant Stadium, marked TCU's third straight bowl win. The last time the Frogs won three bowl games in a row was the 1936 Sugar, 1937 Cotton and 1939 Sugar Bowls—the first three bowl games in school history.

THE BOWL EXPERIENCE

The TCU football team enjoyed six days in Houston leading up to its Dec. 28 battle with Houston in the 2007 Texas Bowl. Prior to their victory, the Frog players and coaches took part in several activities, including a rodeo pitting both participating teams against each other at a local Houston ranch. The cowboy experience continued with each member of the team receiving a new pair of boots. Several players also got into the holiday mood during a hospital visit, where they greeted local Houston children.

EXCELLENCE

Head Coach Gary Patterson has been able to assemble a seasoned staff that has helped turn TCU into one of the nation's most successful programs during his eight-year tenure. The Frogs own a .713 winning percentage since he took the reigns of the Frog program in 2000 to rank among the nation's elite programs. Six of Patterson's assistant coaches have been with him for at least five seasons, including five who have been on staff since he became head coach.

"The way to measure coaching success is consistency, and few coaches can claim the level of consistency that Gary Patterson and his staff have enjoyed. Coach Patterson and his staff are some of the most energetic, hard working coaches that I have been around, and it shows in the product on the field."

– Trev Alberts, CSTV football analyst

"Coach Patterson expects perfection. His goal is to have you reach your full potential. He's not going to have you settle for being mediocre. Coach Patterson is very passionate about his work. If you're coming to TCU, he's going to make sure you come to work every day and you're doing everything you can to get better every day."

– Herb Taylor, former TCU offensive lineman and current Kansas City Chief

"Gary Patterson's resume speaks for itself. He's one of the top coaches in the country. He runs the TCU program the right way. He recruits good kids and turns them into outstanding young men."

– Mark May, ESPN football analyst

TCU COACHING STAFF BY THE NUMBERS

88 Number of bowl games that TCU's coaching staff has taken part in.

230 Combined years of coaching experience for the TCU football staff.

5 Number of assistant coaches (Jarrett Anderson, Chad Glasgow, Mike Schultz, Dan Sharp and Eddie Williamson) who have been on staff during Gary Patterson's entire eight-year tenure as head coach.

17 Years that tight ends coach Dan Sharp has been on the Horned Frog coaching staff. With the exception of three seasons (1998-2000) at Tulsa, he has coached at TCU since 1989.

Mike Schultz (top) has served as TCU offensive coordinator for each of the past seven seasons. Dick Bumpas (below), who also worked with Gary Patterson at Kansas State (1981-82), Utah State (1992-94) and Navy (1995), is in his fifth season as the Horned Frog defensive coordinator.

TAKING IT TO THE NEXT LEVEL

A major factor in today's recruiting is the ability of a program to prepare a player for a career in pro football. The last decade in particular has seen TCU send several top players on to the National Football League. Chief among Horned Frog alumni in the league is 2006 NFL MVP LaDainian Tomlinson (above left), who owns the NFL's single-season touchdown record, as well as Buffalo Bills two-time Pro Bowl selection Aaron Schobel (above right). Sixteen former Frogs appeared on NFL rosters during the 2008 summer mini-camp period.

Defensive End
Tampa Bay Buccaneers

BRIAN BONNER
Safety
San Diego Chargers

DAVID HAWTHORNE
Linebacker
Chicago Bears

NEWEST FROGS IN THE NFL

Despite not having a draft pick for the first time in seven years, TCU still managed to send six seniors from last season's team to NFL camps through the signing of free agent contracts.

In all, Gary Patterson has had 16 players drafted and 36 participate in NFL camps since 2001. Those figures include two members of the 2006 team and three players from the 2005 squad who were selected in the NFL Draft.

TCU's 16 draftees since 2001 ranks third among all Texas schools, behind only Texas and Texas A&M.

MATTY LINDNER
Offensive Line
Kansas City Chiefs

CHASE ORTIZ
Defensive End
Cleveland Browns

DAVID ROACH
Safety
New Orleans Saints

FROGS IN THE NFL

- Left: Larry Brown was named MVP of Super Bowl XXX in 1995 for the Dallas Cowboys. Brown pulled in two interceptions of Pittsburgh Steelers quarterback Neil O'Donnell to help key the Cowboys' third world championship in the decade of the 1990s.
- Below: Bob Lilly made it to the NFL Hall of Fame after playing for the Horned Frogs from 1957 to 1960. Lilly was an 11-time Pro Bowl selection for the Dallas Cowboys during his 14-year NFL career.
- Right: Marvin White, a two-year starter at safety for TCU from 2005 through 2006, earned a starting safety spot for the Cincinnati Bengals last season in his rookie year.

FROGS IN THE NFL

- Far Left: Herb Taylor, who started 48 consecutive games as a Frog, was selected in the sixth round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.
- Left: Sam Baugh ranks as one of the NFL's all-time greatest quarterbacks, and he has been credited with being the first true pure passer in the league's history. A member of the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team, Baugh was a nine-time All-Pro Selection during his 14 years with the Washington Redskins and has had his uniform No. 33 retired by the team.
- Below Left: Matt Schobel has scored 12 touchdowns on his 115 career receptions at tight end during six NFL seasons with Cincinnati and Philadelphia.
- Below Right: Kenneth Davis was a member of four AFC Championship Buffalo Bills squads in the early 1990s, as he served as a backup to NFL Hall of Fame running back Thurman Thomas.

LADAINIAN TOMLINSON: HORNED FROG, NFL LEGEND

After helping start a renaissance of the TCU football program at the turn of the century, former Horned Frog tailback LaDainian Tomlinson took his show to the NFL, where he has become one of the league's preeminent superstars. Tomlinson, who was named the NFL's MVP in 2006, set a league single-season record in 2006 by scoring 31 touchdowns and has rushed for more than 1,200 yards in each of his seven seasons.

NOVEMBER 20, 1999

Sets an NCAA single-game record with 406 yards rushing in a 52-24 win over UTEP.

DECEMBER 16, 2000

Places fourth in voting for the 2000 Heisman Trophy.

JANUARY 30, 2001

Presented the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back.

APRIL 21, 2001

Becomes the fifth overall pick by the San Diego Chargers in the NFL draft.

AUGUST 17, 2005

Receives his TCU bachelor's degree.

NOVEMBER 12, 2005

TCU honors jersey No. 5 in a halftime ceremony as part of "LT Day" during a 51-3 victory over UNLV.

DECEMBER 10, 2006

Sets the NFL single-season touchdown record in the Chargers' 48-20 win versus Denver.

JANUARY 4, 2007

Selected as the NFL's Most Valuable Player by a landslide vote. Later named NFL Man of the Year to become only the second player player to win both awards in the same season. The other was Hall of Famer Walter Payton in 1977.

DECEMBER 30, 2007

Wins second straight NFL rushing title with 1,474 yards, although the total was only the fourth-highest of his distinguished career.

JANUARY 13, 2007

Helps lead the Chargers to their first AFC Championship game since 1994 with a 28-24 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Indianapolis Colts in the AFC Divisional Playoffs.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

Frog football players benefit from a solid group of athletic facilites at their disposal on a daily basis. While the program has called 44,358-seat Amon G. Carter Stadium home since 1930, more recent additions include the Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and the Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center.

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM

The Horned Frogs' official home since its construction in 1930, Amon G. Carter Stadium features grandstands on both sidelines, including a massive double-deck west stand that towers above the TCU campus. The Frogs have used the home-field atmosphere of the charming facility to their advantage by winning 39 of 45 games (87 percent) at Amon Carter since 2000.

The playing surface was changed from a synthetic turf to natural grass in 1992, and a new state-of-the-art scoring and video system was added in 2002. This season another facelift will be unveiled, as the Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center will add six luxury suites and 250 club seats to the south end zone. A complete renovation of Amon Carter also is in the works. For a sneak peek of the proposed changes, see both this publication's inside cover and page 35.

SAM BAUGH INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

The Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field, which opened in the summer of 2007, gives TCU a competitive edge in attracting the top student-athletes, in addition to providing the Horned Frogs with the ability to practice despite outside weather conditions.

The climate-controlled facility features an 80-yard field with regulation 52-yard width and two full end zones. It measures 60 feet from the turf to the highest point of its vaulted ceiling. Construction was finished in only 10 months during the summer of 2007 at a cost of roughly $7 million. The 80,000 square-foot structure is named in honor of the Horned Frogs' football legend and sits adjacent to TCU's Morris Practice Fields.

"An indoor facility has become essential in attracting the top prospective student-athletes to campus. The generosity of both the Justin Foundation and Cox Family will enable us to aggressively recruit among the nation's best programs."

—Head Coach Gary Patterson

WALSH COMPLEX

TCU's spacious Walsh Complex provides Horned Frog student-athletes with a state-of-the-art facility for athletic training and rehabilitation, as well as weight training and conditioning.

TCU's sports medicine area received a facelift prior to the 2008 season in the form of a renovated rehab area featuring all-new equipment.

JOHN JUSTIN ATHLETIC CENTER

Construction of the 38,000 square-foot John Justin Athletic Center was completed in August 2000. The facility, located outside the south end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium, houses the TCU football offices, athletics administration offices, Athletic Academic Services Offices, video labs and the Euckles Heritage Center. The Justin is named after longtime TCU trustee John Justin, former CEO of Justin Industries.

Located on the Justin Center's second floor outside the entry to the football offices is TCU's vast collection of trophies and other historic athletics memorabilia. Included among the collection are two national championship trophies, Davey O'Brien's 1938 Heisman Trophy and LaDainian Tomlinson's 2000 Doak Walker Award.

ANOTHER STEP FORWARD

Commitment is the key word when it comes to TCU football, and in no area is that word more evident than the facility improvements planned for the future of the Horned Frog program. The first step was the $7 million Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility that opened in the summer of 2007. Phase two will be unveiled this fall in the form of the Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center (above), named after the Frogs' career leaders in wins by a head football coach (below left). In addition to offering luxury suites and club seats for the first time this season (below right), TCU also is moving in the direction of a proposed major renovation of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

DUTCH MEYER ATHLETIC COMPLEX & ABE MARTIN ACADEMIC ENHANCEMENT CENTER

The $13 million, 40,000 square-foot Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center sit atop the Walsh Complex and have been completely funded by nine donors. The area, which is scheduled to open in the Fall of 2008, features academic and team meeting space, a team community area, 250 club seats, six luxury suites and a unique view of Amon G. Carter Stadium. The complex will provide TCU with yet another edge in helping to lure the nation's top recruits to campus. Game day revenues raised by the facility will go directly to supporting athletics scholarships through the Frog Club.

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM RENOVATION

TCU recently announced an ambitious proposed plan for a complete renovation of the Frogs' home field, the 78-year old Amon G. Carter Stadium (left and below). Preliminary planning and a feasibility study are underway to help TCU reach its goal of creating the "Camden Yards" of collegiate football stadiums. The first major donation toward the project was received in June 2008 in the form of a $15 million gift from the Amon G. Carter Foundation.

"The Carter Foundation recognizes that the football stadium remains one of the most visible landmarks on campus and in southwest Fort Worth," said John Robinson, executive vice president of the Amon G. Carter Foundation. "Our commitment signals a strong endorsement from the Carter family and Foundation of the University's intention to renovate the stadium. We are proud to be the first commitment toward the project, which will enhance the University and Fort Worth for the next 50 years."

ATHLETICS

FACILITIES

TCU takes pride in its ablility to provide student-athletes with some of the finest facilities possible. Horned Frog athletes have seen multiple facility upgrades in recent years, and not just for football. The Schollmaier Basketball Complex, completed in 2004, gave both men's and women's basketball programs a brand-new practice facility, while the baseball team benefited from the construction of the $7 million Lupton Stadium in 2003. The tennis, track and field, soccer, volleyball and swimming and diving programs also have seen individual sport improvements since 2000, and a multi-million-dollar Olympic Sports Complex is one of many projects in the works for the future of TCU's athletics program.

DANIEL-MEYER COLISEUM

Home of the TCU men's and women's basketball teams, Daniel-Meyer Coliseum is located on the southeast corner of Amon G. Carter Stadium. The 7,201-seat arena of the "DMC" was constructed in 1961 and has seen several upgrades in recent years. In addition to receiving updated men's and women's locker rooms since 2002, a new athletic medicine facility was added in 2006. The arena floor was replaced in 2003, and a new LED suspended scoreboard and LED boards along the scorer's tables were added in 2007 at a cost of nearly $1.5 million.

TCU has taken full advantage of its home-court atmosphere since the DMC's construction. The men have won 63 percent of their home games since 1961, while the Lady Frogs have posted an 81.8 percent home winning percentage over the last nine seasons.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

It's where success on the field sees its beginnings—in the weight room. TCU takes pride in providing its student-athletes with the finest strength and conditioning program possible. A staff of four full-time strength coaches push Horned Frog student-athletes to become stronger, faster and more powerful while at the same time helping to avoid injury. The TCU football program utilizes a massive weight room in the Walsh Complex, and the program's commitment to strength and conditioning has paid off, as each of the football team's weight lifting records have been broken in Head Coach Gary Patterson's eight-year tenure.

PHILOSOPHY
The field of strength and conditioning is extremely dynamic and always changing. The one constant in our profession is the student-athletes. Our number one goal is to make each student athlete stronger, faster, and more powerful in whatever sport they choose to participate in. By doing these things, we help prevent injury. The sport specific training regiments are preventative in nature. As strength and conditioning professionals, we are entrusted with the care and guidance of student-athletes from across the country and mold them into elite world class athletes during their tenure at TCU.

MISSION
To provide a positive and energetic learning environment for student-athletes and coaches. To train both body and mind, creating an interest and desire for strength and conditioning. To assist every student athlete in achieving an optimum physical performance level, while preparing them for a lifetime of fitness.

WALSH COMPLEX WEIGHT ROOM

TCU student-athletes are fortunate to benefit from outstanding strength and conditioning facilities, including the massive Walsh Complex weight room. Located mere feet away from both the football locker room and athletic medicine training area, the weight room features countless racks of free weights with other strength machines to help the Frogs stay in top condition.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The TCU athletic training staff aims to provide the highest level of sports medicine care so Frog student-athletes can keep themselves on the field of play. The staff uses processes combining care, prevention and rehabilitation with the supervision of nutritional and physiological needs of each student-athlete. The football team utilizes the Walsh Center Athletic Training Room, while there also are training rooms in Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, Lupton Baseball Stadium and the University Recreation Center. The Walsh facility is scheduled to receive a newly remodeled rehab room that will include all-new state-of-the-art equipment in the Fall of 2008.

WALSH ATHLETIC TRAINING ROOM

TCU football utilizes the Walsh Athletic Training Room, which is situated near both the football locker room and Walsh Weight Room. The training room features multiple treatment tables and full-size whirlpool tanks to provide the latest techniques in care for Horned Frog student-athletes.

The area also includes a rehabilitation room that has been newly remodeled for the 2008 season. All-new equipment, including free-motion machines, stair climbers and exercise bikes, will be installed for the upcoming season.

TCU SPORTS MEDICINE STAFF

TCU employs a very large sports medicine staff (below) featuring six full-time athletics medicine personnel, one full-time physician, one part-time nutritionist, four graduate assistants and at least 30 student athletic trainers. Dr. Sam Haraldson is the Frogs' own physician, making TCU one of only a handful of collegiate programs to employ a full-time doctor. In addition to Haraldson, Horned Frog athletics also utilizes the efforts of a five-man primary physician staff that works directly with the TCU football team. Amy Goodson, one of the few nutrionists on a college athletics staff, works part-time with the department to help Frog student-athletes eat right on a daily basis.

IN THE NATION'S SPOTLIGHT

TCU is situated in the seventh-largest media market in the nation, and that means lots of media attention on the Frog football team. In addition to regular practice coverage, local television stations attend Head Coach Gary Patterson's weekly news conference and provide live reports from home football games. Daily newspaper coverage is provided by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, which has been recognized as one of the nation's top-10 sports pages, and games are broadcast throughout parts of the state via radio stations such as the 100,000-watt 103.3 FM ESPN Radio. At least nine of TCU's 12 games this season will be televised, and national outlets such as Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and USA Today have each featured the Frogs in recent seasons.

AT THE HEAD OF THE CLASS

Before practice, before the training room and before watching film, there are the books. Up early and up late, TCU student-athletes strive for excellence in the classroom, just as they do on the playing field. In the Spring of 2008, the Frogs' all-sports grade-point average was 2.91, one of the three highest in school history. In fact, three of the last four departmental semester GPAs have been the highest since tracking began in the Fall of 1999. Thirteen of TCU's programs had team GPAs of 3.0 or better during the Spring of 2008, and at least 54 percent of all student-athletes registered a 3.0 or higher. Nineteen student-athletes earned perfect 4.0 GPAs during the term, while 44 percent were at 3.2 or better.

ABOUT ACADEMIC SERVICES

The Athletic Academic Services Office (AASO), made up of the Davis Academic Learning Center and the new Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center offers exceptional academic support services for all Horned Frog student-athletes. The AASO is client-centered in its objectives and goals as it provides an environment conducive to academic achievement and personal development. Life Skills programming ensures that student-athletes receive a well-rounded academic experience and are prepared for the challenges after TCU. In addition to five full-time staff members, the AASO also utilizes the help of two graduate assistants and five undergrad student workers in addition to a pool of 50-plus tutors who provide at least 200 weekly sessions.

Brian Bonner (above) and Chase Ortiz (below), senior members of the Frogs' 2007 squad who signed NFL free-agent contracts last spring, were among a group of five football players who earned their degrees from TCU in December of 2007. The squad's roster for the Texas Bowl featured nine student-athletes overall who had already earned degrees.

TCU ACADEMIC SUCCESS BY THE NUMBERS

86 Graduation success rate for the 2007 TCU football team.

2 TCU football's rank among Mountain West Conference teams in Academic Success Rate for 2007.

135 Number of players who have earned degrees since Gary Patterson became TCU head coach.

100 Percent of current seniors on track to graduate by Spring 2009.

DAVIS ACADEMIC LEARNING CENTER

Housed in the John Justin Athletic Center, the Athletic Academic Services office (below) includes individual tutor rooms, group study rooms and a computer lab. The center provides members of TCU's football team with much-needed academic space near the Walsh Complex athletic training and strength and and conditioning facilities.

ABE MARTIN ACADEMIC ENHANCEMENT CENTER

Scheduled for completion in the fall of 2008, the new Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center (below) will be a valuable tool to help TCU in its academics mission. Among several features to be included in the 7,000 square-foot facility are:

- A 160-seat interactive classroom featuring the latest technology and teaching tools
- Seven new individual tutor rooms
- A spacious computer lab with 32 new desktop machines

TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

Texas Christian University is forging into all-new frontiers today—the explosion of technology; the reality of a global society; the wonder found in diversity; the satisfaction of understanding the world we live in and making it better. At TCU, students find small classes (a 14:1 student-to-teacher ratio), challenging and caring professors and countless ways to get involved and lead. A challenging academic environment helps individuals grow as thinkers, writers and speakers. And learning to change the world isn't just some lofty idea. For thousands of students who choose TCU each year, it's what they work toward every day.

CAMPUS GROWTH

Texas Christian University currently is in the midst of a $150 million Campus Commons project (rendering above) that will help meet goals established through Vision in Action, a strategic planning initiative created to help bring the University into a new era. The project is in the midst of radically changing the face of the TCU campus. Individual projects already completed include the construction of the new TCU Barnes and Noble Bookstore and Mabee Foundation Education Complex, in addition to four new student residence halls and the Grand Marc apartment complex. Coming this fall is the $45 million Brown-Lupton University Union.

BROWN-LUPTON UNIVERSITY UNION

Scope: Construction of a 145,000 square-foot facility to replace the existing student center. Key elements of the building will include a new dining facility, an auditorium, a campus living room and student organization space.

Current Status: Under Construction

Completion Date: Fall 2008

TCU BARNES & NOBLE BOOKSTORE

Scope: Construction of a two-story, 34,000 square-foot facility to replace the bookstore that was destroyed by fire during renovation in March 2006. This was a joint venture with Barnes & Noble, which operates the bookstore. The new bookstore is located on the corner of University Drive and W. Berry Street. Key elements include expanded book sales and retail space; lounge and reading areas; a mezzanine for text books and study areas; and a cafe with indoor and outdoor seating.

Current Status: Completed

Opened: Jan. 2008

J.E. AND L.E. MABEE FOUNDATION EDUCATION COMPLEX

Scope: Renovation of the interior of the existing Bailey Building and construction of an adjoining three-story, 23,000 square-foot addition, named the Betsy and Steve Palko Hall.

Current Status: Completed

Opened: Aug. 2007

RESIDENCE HALLS

Scope: Construction of four residence halls totaling approximately 220,000 square feet providing housing for 628 residents. Student housing administrative offices are located on the ground floor of Kellye Wright Samuelson Hall. Samuelson and Amon G. Carter Hall (the two northernmost) were completed in the Summer of 2007, followed Theresa and Luther King Hall and Mary and Robert J. Wright Hall in December of 2007.

LEADING ON AND OFF THE FIELD

Several years ago, the TCU coaching staff formed a group called the TCU Leadership Council, which consisted of a player from each position on the team. "We wanted to develop more leadership and create a situation where leadership was passed from one class to the next," Head Coach Gary Patterson said. "If the players have the opportunity for input, they have ownership. If they have ownership, then they're more accountable to themselves and to their teammates. It becomes 'our decision,' instead of 'my decision.'" The group is charged with, among other purposes, serving as a vehicle of communication among the players and coaches and serving as a unified voice for the team.

A CHANCE TO GIVE BACK

The community outreach activities conducted by the TCU athletics department are as many and as varied as the Horned Frogs' 20 different teams. In the 2007-08 academic year, student-athletes, coaches and administrators made countless appearances in community outreach projects. The Frogs donated time, talent and resources to a wide variety of different charitable organizations.

2007-08 TCU CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES

Superfrog Reading Challenge: TCU student-athletes and SuperFrog visit the involved elementary schools in both the fall and spring semesters for a program intended to encourage students in Fort Worth elementary schools to read.

Career Days: Coaches from football, soccer, and swimming and diving, along with members of the athletics department, went to elementary schools and described their jobs and how they got to their positions.

College Bound at TCU: TCU's Education Department invited schools to visit campus in order to gain a glimpse into college life. Members of various athletics programs created a panel for these students who were interested in learning what life is like as a student-athlete at TCU. Members of the football and soccer team made up the panel, along with Showgirls and cheerleaders.

Bowl Week Outreach: Coach Gary Patterson and select members of the TCU football team visited a local Houston children's center, where they visited with youth and teens who had faced social and emotional crises in their lives.

IN THE HEART OF THE METROPLEX

Fort Worth continues to wear its cowboy heritage and exude a prop-your-feet-up-and-stay-awhile spirit. Smiles and nods are the norm. Optimism, like a friendly handshake, is undeniable. Yet as much as Fort Worth began on the open range, it thrives more today as a cosmopolitan city. It marries a proud cowboy heritage with a distinct sophistication that sets the city apart. Downtown itself is only five miles from campus. Sundance Square invites patrons to enjoy the 20-block entertainment and shopping venue. Where else can you take your pick of more than 25 upscale eateries, see a movie, attend a play, listen to a symphony or dance under the stars – all within walking distance of each other? Fort Worth connects with nearby Dallas and other surrounding communities for what is simply known as the "Metroplex," which boasts a total population of more than 6.1 million to form the fourth-largest metropolitan area in the United States.

DFW QUICK FACTS

- Fort Worth ranks No. 1 among fastest growing cities in Texas; 18th nationally (ranked by CNNmoney.com).
- There are four professional sports teams in DFW (Cowboys, Mavericks, Rangers and Stars).
- Fort Worth is also home to minor league baseball's Fort Worth Cats.
- There are 21 malls in DFW.
- There are 13 movie theaters in Fort Worth and the surrounding areas.
- There are more than 350 restaurants in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex.
- An average of 1,150 commercial flights fly in and out of DFW International Airport on a daily basis (to at least 85 cities a day).
- There are 22 airlines that fly in and out of DFW Airport.
- There are approximately 1,500 churches in Dallas/Fort Worth.
- Dallas/Fort Worth is made up of 12 counties (TCU is located in Tarrant County).
- The Metroplex's total population of nearly 6.1 million residents ranks No. 4 among the top metropolitan areas in the United States.
- There are just under 600,000 people living in Fort Worth.
- The land area of Fort Worth is 293 square miles.
- Approximately 7.5 million people visit Fort Worth each year, bringing $900 million to the local economy.
- Fort Worth is home to Billy Bob's, the largest honky-tonk in the world. The inside of this landmark is three acres.

ONE OF 12 FROG 2,000-YARD CAREER RUSHERS

2007 | JUNIOR SEASON

Preseason Mountain West Conference Player of the Year who saw his season come to a close with an injury against UNLV in the next-to-last regular-season contest ... was hampered by injuries throughout the campaign ... still placed second on the Frogs with 490 yards rushing (4.6 per carry) while ranking fourth with 24 receptions ... became the 12th player in TCU history to rush for over 2,000 career yards ... sidelined in the first quarter of the season-opening 27-0 win over Baylor ... missed the Texas and Air Force contests before returning to action in week four versus SMU ... came off-the-bench to rush for 92 yards on 11 carries while adding three receptions against the Mustangs ... earned MWC Offensive Player of the Week honors the following game when he ran for 124 yards, his fifth career 100-yard game, to go with three receptions in a 24-12 victory over Colorado State ... rushed for 91 yards while totaling a season-best five receptions and two key touchdowns as TCU rallied from a 14-point deficit for a 38-36 win at Stanford ... his 2-yard scoring reception on a fourth-and-goal with less than 10 minutes to play evened the game ... scored the game-winning touchdown on a 2-yard run with 4:13 remaining ... TCU was 3-0 when he rushed for at least 91 yards ... equaled a season-best with five receptions to go with 59 yards rushing against Utah ... posted four catches at Wyoming ... had at least one reception in eight of his nine games, the lone exception being the UNLV contest when he exited early due to injury ... scored on a 10-yard run versus the Rebels ... averaged 24.6 yards on 14 kickoff returns for the year ... had season-long efforts of 42 and 43 yards against BYU and UNLV, respectively ... totaled 995 all-purpose yards on the season.

2006 | SOPHOMORE SEASON

Second-team All-Mountain West Conference… TCU's top rusher (801 yards) while placing third in the league (66.8 yards per game) … his 5.2 per carry average was the best among the MWC's top-eight ground gainers … his team-high nine rushing touchdowns ranked first among the league's top-10 rushers ... had a team-best 10 touchdowns overall … second on the Frogs in receptions (34) and receiving yards (455) … the 34 catches were the most by a Horned Frog running back since Basil Mitchell totaled 40 in 1996 … had at least one reception in all but one game … third in the MWC in all-purpose yards per game (116.8) … totaled 285 all-purpose yards in the 45-14 win at Colorado State … rushed for a career-high 166 yards and three touchdowns, while adding three receptions for 48 yards and two kickoff returns for 71 yards … his third-quarter 84-yard touchdown reception from Marcus Jackson provided the go-ahead points in the 17-7 win at Baylor … it also enabled him to become the first TCU running back since 1994 (Andre Davis, 109 yards, vs. Tulane) to go over 100 yards receiving … recorded a season-best five receptions for 59 yards against UC Davis … had four catches against BYU and New Mexico … rushed for at least 48 yards in each game … had totals of 73 and 72, respectively, against UC Davis and Texas Tech.

2005 | FRESHMAN SEASON

Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year and an honorable-mention Freshman All-American as a true freshman ... posted the highest per carry average (5.9) among the EV1.net MWC's top 10 rushers ... closed the year with a 7-yard scoring run in the Houston Bowl win over Iowa State ... averaged 80.0 yards on the ground in the final four games ... placed eighth in the league with his 758 yards, all coming in the last 10 contests (75.8 avg.)... ranked 12th nationally among true freshmen in rushing yards and in a tie for sixth with his three 100-yard games ... MWC Offensive Player of the Week after bursting on the scene with a season-high 163 yards on 17 carries in a nationally-televised Thursday night 23-20 overtime win versus Utah ... did not have any carries in the opening two games before his explosion against the Utes ... rushed for 129 yards versus New Mexico and 105 with three touchdowns against UNLV ... his 73-yard carry against the Lobos gave the Frogs their longest run from scrimmage since 2001 ... his three receiving touchdowns were second on the team... all six of his rushing touchdowns on the year came in the last five contests.

HIGH SCHOOL

Played in one game as a senior at Mayde Creek High School... coached in football by Joe Sheffy... ran a 4.4 40-yard dash and recorded a 10.45 100-meter dash time on the track, one of the fastest prep times in the nation in 2004.

Since taking over the helm of the Horned Frogs in December 2000, Gary Patterson has become synonymous with TCU football.

Patterson is the only coach in TCU history to record more than two 10-win seasons. He has four in the last six years and is also the fastest Horned Frog coach to reach 50 victories.

Patterson's 62-25 (.713) record is the best mark of any TCU head coach after 87 games. Dutch Meyer, coach of the 1935 and 1938 national championship teams, is second (.667, 56-27-4, 1934-40). Patterson's 62 wins are third on the Frogs' career victory list. His .713 winning percentage is second among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt and 13th among active coaches in the Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly called Division I-A).

The Frogs have won four conference titles with Patterson on staff in addition to posting five of the school's nine 10-win seasons. He was TCU's defensive coordinator from 1998-00.

During his 10 years on campus, Patterson has seen TCU make nine bowl appearances. With a 20-13 victory over Houston in the 2007 Texas Bowl, Patterson has led the Frogs to three straight bowl victories for the first time since the first three bowl games in school history (1936-39).

Patterson was the 2002 Conference USA and 2005 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He was a 2003 finalist for Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year honors. He also appeared on the 2006 Bobby Dodd Watch List.

The Frogs are 10-2 in their last 12 games against teams from leagues with automatic BCS bids, including a 5-1 mark versus the Big 12 the past three seasons.

In seven seasons as a head coach, Patterson has coached 75 All-Conference selections, five All-Americans, 10 Freshman All-Americans and one Academic All-American.

In two of its first three seasons in the Mountain West, TCU has set the pace on the all-conference teams. The Frogs had 18 selections in 2005, 14 in 2006 and 11 in 2007.

In his tenure as TCU's head coach, Patterson has had 16 players drafted with a total of 36 in NFL camps.

An 11-2 record in 2006 included wins over Big 12 opponents Baylor and Texas Tech as well as a 37-7 victory over Northern Illinois in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The Frogs' defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). The 2007 defensive unit allowed 323.6 yards per game for the fourth-lowest total during Patterson's time as head coach.

TCU won its last eight games in 2006 for the fourth-best winning streak at the time in the nation, trailing only Boise State (13), BYU (10) and Wisconsin (9).

The Frogs' eight consecutive wins were by an average margin of 24.4 points. During that stretch, the TCU defense allowed per game marks of 10.8 points, 59.6 yards rushing and 185.1 in total offense.

In 2005, Patterson led the Frogs to the Mountain West Conference championship in their first season of league play.

It was also TCU's first outright conference championship since 1958. The Frogs posted an 11-1 record for just the fourth 11-win season in school history and the second in three years.

TCU also recorded its first undefeated league mark (8-0) dating back to 1938.

The Frogs opened and closed the 2005 season with victories over Big 12 teams. Following a 27-24 EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State, Patterson saw TCU climb to ninth in the USA Today poll and 11th in the Associated Press poll. It was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1959.

TCU, picked to finish sixth in 2005 preseason MWC polls, opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. It was TCU's first win against an opponent ranked that high since a 6-0 victory over No. 1 Texas in 1961.

The Frogs were 14th in the final BCS standings. TCU has appeared in the BCS standings 20 times, trailing only Boise State (26) for the most among schools from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

Patterson's success in 2005 was achieved while playing a total of 21 redshirt or true freshmen, tying for fourth nationally in that category.

HEAD COACH GARY PATTERSON

The 2005 Frog defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The offense set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns while its 398 points scored ranked second all-time at TCU.

Setting the pace nationally in defensive categories is nothing new for Patterson. His teams led the country in defense during the 2000 and 2002 campaigns. In 2002, the Frogs allowed only 64.8 rushing yards per game - ranking first in that category as well.

Of the nine head coaches in the Mountain West Conference, only New Mexico's Rocky Long has accumulated more head coaching experience at their current school than Patterson.

TCU has been no stranger to the post-season in the Patterson era. The Frogs have emerged victorious six times in their run of nine bowl games in 10 seasons, including a 17-3 win over MWC champion Colorado State in the 2002 AXA Liberty Bowl.

In his first full season as head coach with the Frogs in 2001, Patterson was one of only eight coaches with no previous Division I head coaching experience to lead their teams to bowl appearances. He proceeded to take the Frogs to a bowl in each of his first three years.

Patterson's 10-2 record and conference championship in the 2002 season earned him Conference USA Coach of the Year accolades. The Frogs finished the season ranked 22nd in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll and 23rd in the Associated Press poll.

Eleven of Patterson's 62 career wins came in the Horned Frogs' 2003 campaign, when TCU climbed as high as sixth in the BCS rankings - the highest ranking at that time for a school from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

Under Patterson's guidance, the Frogs got off to a 10-0 start after opening the season ranked 25th in the Associated Press poll. They finished the season 11-2 and ranked in the top 25 for the second year in a row - the first time that had happened at TCU since the 1950s. His leadership of the 2003 squad made him a finalist for both the Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year honors. He was also named an assistant coach for the Hula Bowl.

In 2004, the Frogs finished in the top 20 in the nation in scoring offense, passing offense and total offense. The Patterson chapter of TCU football, however, has been dominated by a tradition of defense. Since 1999, the Frogs have been ranked in the top five nationally in total defense four times.

Patterson amassed 18 years as an assistant coach, including three with the Frogs, before taking the torch from Dennis Franchione prior to the 2000 GMAC Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In 1998, Patterson's first season at TCU, the Horned Frogs scored a school-record six defensive touchdowns, intercepted 12 passes and allowed only 19.6 points per game - the fewest points per game in over 30 years. It was accomplished by a team that was 1-10 the previous season.

Patterson's 1999 TCU defense ended the season ranked fifth in the country in total defense. The Frogs posted two shutouts and led the Western Athletic Conference in every major defensive category.

In 2000, the Frogs allowed only 245.0 total yards and 9.6 points per game, ranking first in the nation in both categories. Five of Patterson's players earned first-team all-conference recognition and he was a finalist for the Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Patterson spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at New Mexico. The Lobos collected 22 total takeaways and three defensive touchdowns in 1996. The next year, in Patterson style, New Mexico improved their total takeaways to 29, including 16 interceptions.

A true defensive specialist, Patterson had a similar impact at Navy. In just one season as the Midshipmen's secondary coach in 1995, he helped elevate the defense in the national rankings. Navy finished 18th in total defense, 17th in scoring defense and 28th in pass defense efficiency.

Patterson's defensive acumen dates back to his own playing days at Kansas State, where he played strong safety and outside linebacker for the Wildcats in 1980 and 1981.

He served as a graduate assistant in 1982 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He took the linebacker coaching position at Tennessee Tech while earning a master's degree in educational administration in 1984.

Patterson has been part of 12 bowl staffs, including one each with Kansas State, Utah State and New Mexico. The other nine have come at TCU. Aside from being an accomplished Division I head coach, Patterson is also a skilled guitar player. On several occasions, Patterson has entertained TCU fans with his guitar skills at pep rallies around the Fort Worth area.

A native of Rozel, Kansas, Patterson is married to the former Kelsey Hayes. He has three sons: Josh (20), Cade (13) and Blake (9).

PATTERSON'S FOOTBALL PHILOSOPHY

ON THE UNIVERSITY

"TCU is a special school. People come first at TCU. It's a place that when you graduate from here, people know who you are – you weren't just another number that walked through the line. When you only graduate 1,500 students a year, you have made yourself different. The size lends itself to a family atmosphere, which blends with the philosophy of our program. It is a very user-friendly school – one where you can get a quality education, have a great deal of friends, know people on campus and be more than a number. TCU is a very special and unique school."

ON HIMSELF AS A HEAD COACH

"I feel I'm a player's coach. The kids can come and talk to me. They understand that I am all business when I step on the practice field, but when it's over, they know that they are going to be helped as they go on with their lives. You're more than just a football player at TCU. I think that is proven by our graduation rates. We push the kids to take care of their business in the classroom. Since we've been here, most of our players have graduated and many have worked on their master's degrees while completing their fifth year of eligibility. When you graduate the student-athletes and also have a chance to win a conference championship, we're fulfilling every step possible for a player."

ON TEXAS HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

"I love coaching in this state because football is important. The high school coaches do a great job of running their programs and developing players. We do not have to go very far, as exemplified by our recruiting class, to find good football players that can help us be very competitive here at TCU. It is nice to be able to recruit players that know how to play the game and have great work ethic, because it has been developed in the high schools."

ON HIS EXPECTATIONS FOR THE TEAM

"The top of our pyramid goal is to win a national championship. Whether people believe it's conceivable or not, that's our ultimate goal. We climbed to sixth in the BCS poll in 2003 and had a chance to be the first school from a non-BCS conference to play in one of the major bowls. We talk here about only one rule for the players– act right. Make sure that you don't embarrass yourself, your university, your teammates or your family. We want our players to be the best that they can be. They are held accountable for their actions. If you are not accountable, it's very hard to stay within our program. Our ultimate goal is not just to prepare you for the four or five years you are here, but to prepare you for the next 40 to 50 years. When you leave here, you understand how to compete to be successful. The kind of people we want to recruit are those who want to compete. When you have those kind of people, you win a lot of football games. You have guys who can count on each other when it's fourth and one."

HEAD COACH GARY PATTERSON

ON THE HORNED FROGS' OFFENSE
"Coming in as a defensive coach, I think people were wondering what we would be offensively. I think you found out that we are very multiple. Our system is such that it is going to use the people we have to the best of their abilities. We went from running the football - being a power team or running the option - to throwing it 35 to 50 times a game. Sometimes people think of us as an option school and we're not. We are a multiple offense that will take what people will give us - tailored to fit the abilities of our players."

ON TCU'S DEFENSE
"We are a pressure-oriented defense – an attacking style of defense – one that makes things happen without giving up big plays."

ON LEAVING EARLY FOR THE NFL
"If you are a certain first round pick, I think there's a lot of merit in leaving early. We don't stand in the way, but would advise our kids that the only round you would want to leave early for is the first round. Ultimately, the most important thing that you can do at TCU is get your degree."

ON TWO-SPORT ATHLETES
"As long as the athlete can be a major contributor in both sports, I'm willing to work with two-sport athletes. If they are doing the other sport just to be doing it, I don't think it's a positive for either sport. He's not giving either team a chance to be the best that it can be. We probably back that up as much as any other university. We've had Royce and Chad Huffman play baseball, Nick Browne play soccer and several guys like LaTarence Dunbar, Reggie Harrell, Tyrone Sanders, Michael DePriest, Otis McDaniel, Quincy Butler and Cody Moore compete on the track team."

ON A COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF
"Being at a non-BCS school, I'd like to see the system changed. I think ultimately what you want to find out is who's the best team in college football. Right now it's a situation where I'm not sure you do find that out. I think a playoff system would serve that purpose. My biggest worry with a playoff system is the physical nature of the game. I don't know how many more games young men could handle playing over the course of a season. In some seasons, teams may play 13 or 14 games. Ultimately, I think it really takes a toll on those kids. The older players really take the punishment. There's a fine line on that. I think you could get it down to eight teams. I think there has to be an answer for all those out there who think we have to have a national champion."

Jarrett Anderson is in his eighth year as the TCU wide receivers coach and 11th overall with the Frogs.

Under Anderson's tutelage, three TCU receivers in the last six years have been drafted by NFL teams.

Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by Green Bay in 2006, while Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by Denver and Atlanta, respectively. All three finished their careers in the top 10 of various TCU receiving categories.

Reggie Harrell, who signed as a free agent with Dallas, became the school's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003 with the Horned Frogs.

During his three-year career, Rodgers tied Mike Renfro's career TCU mark of 17 receiving touchdowns.

Both Harrell and Rodgers rank among the top 10 in school history in career receptions and yards while earning all-conference recognition.

In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. In addition, Michael DePriest was signed as a free-agent in 2007 by Indianapolis.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the Frogs' offensive line.

Anderson spent one season (1997) as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers. He began his collegiate playing career at Tyler before transferring to New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in TCU's MLA program.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have two sons: Aidan and Eli.

DICK BUMPAS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ DEFENSIVE LINE

Arkansas, 1973

Fifth season at TCU

Dick Bumpas joined TCU in February 2004 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

Bumpas first worked with Horned Frog coach Gary Patterson at Kansas State in the early 1980s. He was the Wildcats' defensive line coach in 1981 when Patterson was a senior linebacker. Patterson then became a Kansas State graduate assistant in 1982 and joined Bumpas on staff.

The duo also worked together at Utah State from 1992-94 and at Navy in 1995. At both places, Bumpas was the defensive coordinator while Patterson was the secondary coach.

Bumpas was ranked by Rivals.com in 2007 as the seventh-best defensive coach in the nation.

Bumpas coached defensive ends Tommy Blake and Chase Ortiz to first-team All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2005 and 2006. In 2007, Ortiz became TCU's first three-time first-team all-conference player in 30 years (Mike Renfro, 1975-77). Ortiz signed a free-agent contract with the Cleveland Browns.

The 2006 TCU defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 ypg.) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game).

Bumpas was nominated for the 2005 Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award. He was named the Rivals.com National Defensive Coordinator of the Week following the Horned Frogs' season-opening 17-10 win at Oklahoma. TCU held the Sooners to 225 yards of total offense and the second-lowest point total in coach Bob Stoops' tenure in Norman.

TCU led the nation in 2005 in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The Frogs topped the Mountain West Conference with 41 sacks and allowed just three touchdowns in their final three games, keeping their opponent out of the end zone for 10 quarters from Oct. 29 at San Diego State to the Dec. 31 EV1.net Houston Bowl.

In a coaching career that has spanned 30 years, Bumpas has won championships in four different conferences and coached at all three service academies. He has also coached in 15 bowl games.

Bumpas came to TCU after serving as Western Michigan's defensive coordinator for one season.

Bumpas worked at the University of Houston from 1999-02, serving as assistant head coach and linebackers coach and later as co-defensive coordinator, installing the 4-2-5 defense in his initial season. Houston finished 25th in the nation in total defense that first year while ranking 20th against the run and 22nd in scoring defense. In 2001, Bumpas coached Wayne Rogers, the Conference USA Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to his stint at Houston, Bumpas worked four seasons at the U.S. Naval Academy as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. His 1997 Navy unit ranked sixth in total defense and turnover margin. At season's end, he was invited to coach in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. In 1996, Bumpas' defense held California to just three second-half points in an Aloha Bowl victory.

Bumpas spent three seasons (1992-94) as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Utah State, helping the Aggies to a 1993 Big West Championship and a Las Vegas Bowl victory over Ball State. Other coaching stops include two seasons as defensive line coach at Notre Dame (1990-92), during which time he mentored 1990 Lombardi Award winner Chris Zorich. In 1989, Bumpas coached the defensive line at his alma mater, Arkansas, a team that went on to win a Southwest Conference title and advanced to the 1990 Cotton Bowl.

Bumpas coached seven years in the Volunteer state, splitting time between the University of Tennessee (1985-89) as linebackers coach/special teams coordinator and Tennessee Tech (1983-84) as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. While with the Vols, Bumpas coached three bowl championship teams (1986 Sugar, 1986 Liberty, 1988 Peach) and was part of the Southeastern Conference championship in 1985.

Bumpas began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1977. From there, he went to the U.S. Military Academy and implemented a new defense under Homer Smith in 1978. Installing new defenses would become a trend for Bumpas, who did the same thing as defensive line coach at the Air Force Academy during a two-year tenure (1979-80) with the Falcons.

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Bumpas received three varsity letters and was a captain for the Razorbacks. He was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1970, earning consensus All-America honors at defensive tackle. He received a Bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1973. He went on to play tight end and linebacker professionally for the Memphis Southmen in the World Football League and the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Bumpas, a 2006 inductee into the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, is married to the former Gloria Surratt.

2004-06 Illinois State (Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks)
2007-present TCU (Running Backs)

BOWL GAMES:
2007 Texas Bowl (TCU)

Justin Fuente joined the TCU football coaching staff in February 2007 as running backs coach.

Fuente filled an opening with the Horned Frogs after quarterbacks coach Dick Winder announced his retirement following five seasons at TCU and 41 years in the coaching profession. TCU offensive coordinator Mike Schultz then switched from running backs coach to quarterbacks coach.

Fuente came to TCU after spending the previous six seasons as quarterbacks coach at Illinois State. His final three years saw him double as the Redbirds' offensive coordinator.

Fuente played two seasons (1996-97) at Oklahoma under Winder. At the time, Winder was the Sooners' offensive coordinator. Fuente set an Oklahoma freshman record with 11 touchdown passes. He then transferred to Murray State for his final two years of eligibility.

Fuente set 11 school records at Murray State, including total offense and passing yards in a game and season. He was the Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top player in Division I-AA.

Under Fuente's direction, Illinois State ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense in 2005 and 2006. The Redbirds placed eighth in 2006 with an average of 397.5 yards per game after ranking fifth in both total offense (477.6 yards) and scoring (39.2 points) in 2005.

Fuente coached Redbird quarterback Luke Drone to first-team All-Gateway Conference honors as he led the league in passing (227.8 yards) and total offense (231.6 yards). Running back Pierre Rembert set an Illinois State single-season record while ranking sixth nationally in rushing with 1,743 yards (134.1 per game).

Following his collegiate career, Fuente played professionally with the Oklahoma Wranglers in the Arena League. A 1999 graduate of Murray State, Fuente is a native of Tulsa, Okla.

Fuente and his wife, Jenny, have a daughter: Cecilia Mae.

SAFETIES

Oklahoma State, 1995

Eighth season at TCU

Chad Glasgow, a member of Gary Patterson's first staff at TCU, is in his eighth year as the Horned Frogs' safeties coach.

With Stephen Hodge and David Roach earning All-Mountain West Conference honors last season, Glasgow has now coached nine all-conference selections at safety for TCU. Roach and Brian Bonner signed 2008 free-agent contracts with the New Orleans Saints and San Diego Çhargers, respectively.

In 2006, Marvin White was first-team All-MWC and later a fourth-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals. Bonner was a second-team selection. White and Jeremy Modkins were All-MWC in 2005.

Since arriving at TCU, Glasgow also tutored all-conference safeties Kenneth Hilliard, a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills, and Marvin Godbolt, who inked a professional contract in the Canadian Football League.

Glasgow coached safeties, including 2000 Southland Conference Player of the Year C.J. Carroll, at Southwest Texas State from 1998-00.

Prior to his stint at Southwest Texas State, Glasgow spent one year at Illinois State as the linebackers coach. He mentored a pair of all-conference selections during his time in Normal, Ill.

Glasgow also had coaching stops as a graduate assistant at both Oklahoma State (1994-95) under Bob Simmons and New Mexico (1996) with Dennis Franchione. Patterson was the Lobos' defensive coordinator that season.

A three-year letterwinner, Glasgow played linebacker at Oklahoma State. He earned a bachelor's degree from OSU in business administration in 1995.

2003-04 Louisiana-Lafayette (Secondary)
2005-06 Houston (Safeties)
2007 Baylor (Cornerbacks)
2008-present TCU (Cornerbacks)

Clay Jennings joined the TCU football staff as cornerbacks coach in January 2008.

Jennings, who has coached five current NFL defensive backs, came to the Horned Frogs after serving as the cornerbacks coach at Baylor last season.

Prior to serving the 2007 campaign at Baylor, Jennings worked two seasons (2005-06) as safeties coach at Houston. He helped the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances and the 2006 Conference USA championship. In 2006, Cougars' free safety Will Gulley earned Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors while Brandon Brinkley was named to the league's all-freshman squad.

In his first season at Houston, Jennings saw Rocky Schwartz earn Conference USA third-team all-league honors and Kenneth Fontennette be named an honorable-mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News.

Prior to his two-year stint at Houston, Jennings spent two seasons (2003-04) as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Lafayette, where he helped the Ragin' Cajuns to a No. 11 national ranking in pass defense. At Louisiana-Lafayette, Jennings tutored current NFL players Antwain Spann (New England Patriots), C.C. Brown (Houston Texans) and Michael Adams (Arizona Cardinals).

Jennings also worked two years (2001-02) as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Sam Houston State. He helped the Bearkats to a share of the 2001 Southland Conference championship and the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. At SHSU, Jennings coached All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist Keith Davis, who just completed his fifth season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Jennings also coached the secondary at Southern Arkansas (2000), Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa (1999) and Morehouse College in Atlanta (1998). At SAU, Jennings mentored Jordan Babineaux of the Seattle Seahawks. At Morningside, Jennings coached first-team All-American Matt Walker.

A four-year letterwinner (1992-95) as a defensive lineman and special teams standout at North Texas, Jennings was a member of the Mean Green's 1994 Southland Conference championship team and the school's first NCAA Division I-A squad in 1995. He began his coaching career as a student assistant (1996) and then graduate assistant (1997) at North Texas before moving on to Morehouse.

A 1992 graduate of Waco's La Vega High School and a 1996 North Texas alumnus (bachelor's of science in kinesiology), Jennings and his wife, Belinda, have two children: son Kirby and daughter Kenzie.

MIKE SCHULTZ

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS

Sam Houston State, 1979

11th season at TCU

The longest tenured full-time assistant coach at TCU, Mike Schultz is in his 11th season directing the Horned Frogs' multiple offense. He serves as both offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Schultz was the running backs coach his first nine years at TCU. With the retirement of quarterbacks coach Dick Winder in February 2007, Schultz took over the quarterbacks with Justin Fuente hired to coach running backs.

Schultz helped mentor Frog signal caller Andy Dalton to Freshman All-American honors in 2007. Dalton set single-season TCU records for pass completions (222) and attempts (371) while placing second in yards (2,459) and fourth in completion percentage (59.8).

Three of the four highest-scoring teams in TCU history have played under Schultz's direction, including a school-record 410 points in 2000. The 2005 total of 398 points ranks second.

The 2005 Frogs set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns. The other top marks for touchdowns also came under Schultz (49, 2000; 48, 2004).

Two of TCU's top-three games in total offense are under Schultz. The Frogs had a school-record 782 yards versus Houston in 2003 and a 694-yard effort at San Diego State in 2007, which ranks third.

Since Schultz's arrival in 1998, the TCU running game has consistently been among the best in the nation. The 2006 team ranked ninth in rushing (194.6 yards per game) and 17th in total offense (408.5 ypg.).

Prior to Aaron Brown receiving 2005 Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year honors as a true freshman, Lonta Hobbs and Robert Merrill became the only two freshmen in TCU history to rush for 1,000 yards. The duo accomplished the feat in back-to-back seasons (Hobbs 2002, Merrill 2003).

Schultz tutored a 1,000-yard rusher five times at TCU - with Basil Mitchell, LaDainian Tomlinson (twice), Hobbs and Merrill each earning that distinction. Prior to Schultz's arrival, TCU had boasted just four 1,000-yard rushers in more than 100 years of college football.

Under the direction of Schultz, Tomlinson was a two-time NCAA rushing champ, leading the country with 1,850 yards in 1999 and a school record 2,158 in 2000. He earned All-America honors, was a Heisman Trophy finalist and the winner of the Doak Walker National Running Back Award. With Tomlinson leading the way, the 2000 Frogs ranked fourth in the nation, averaging 275.6 rushing yards per game. Tomlinson parlayed his success into a top-five draft pick and a standout NFL career, which includes 2006 MVP honors.

The Frogs can do more than just run the ball. In 2003, TCU was one of just six schools to average over 200 yards rushing and 200 passing per game. The following year, the Frogs ranked among the nation's top-20 teams in scoring, total offense and passing offense. The 362 points scored tied for the second-highest total in school history, while the 48 touchdowns were just one shy of the school record set in 2005. TCU also recorded three of the top-11 passing games in school history during the 2004 campaign.

Schultz served six seasons at New Mexico, the first four as the assistant head coach and secondary coach and the final two as the assistant head coach and running backs coach.

The Houston native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Sam Houston State, in 1979. Schultz then assisted at UTEP and Kansas State. His next stops were with Fred Akers' staff at Texas for one season (1985) and three years at Round Rock (Texas) Westwood High School as an assistant.

Schultz and his wife, Cindy, have three daughters: Taylor, Kendall and Jordan.

One of the more popular players to ever don the Purple and White, Dan Sharp is in his eighth year during his third stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater.

A 2005 inductee into the TCU Lettermen's Hall of Fame, Sharp returned to the Horned Frogs' staff in 2001 as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He previously coached for seven seasons at TCU before heading to Tulsa in 1998.

TCU tight ends totaled seven touchdowns on 33 receptions in 2006. Through the 2007 season, tight end Shae Reagan places third on TCU's career list for average yards per catch at 19.7.

Under Sharp's leadership, Matt Schobel was the second pick in the third round of the 2002 National Football League draft and the 67th player selected overall.

In 2004, Cody McCarty garnered first-team all-league honors.

Sharp coached TCU placekicker and three-time All-Mountain West Conference selection Chris Manfredini to a 47-of-54 mark on field goals in three seasons (2005-07). Additionally, punter Derek Wash was an honorable-mention All-MWC choice in 2007 with a 42.5 average.

Placekicker Nick Browne and punter Joey Biasatti were semifinalists for the Lou Groza and Ray Guy Awards, respectively, during the 2002 campaign. Browne earned All-America honors and was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year in 2003.

TCU's special teams have also produced three consecutive first-team All-MWC return specialists in Brian Bonner (2007, 2006) and Cory Rodgers (2005).

Sharp previously coached at TCU (1991-97) under both Jim Wacker and Pat Sullivan. He mentored the tight ends for five years and handled the defensive ends for two seasons. Before joining the TCU staff on a full-time basis, Sharp served as a graduate assistant under Wacker.

Sharp was a tight end on TCU's 1984 team which finished the regular season with an 8-3 record in earning a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl. He had a key touchdown reception in a 32-31 win at Arkansas, the Frogs' first victory in Fayetteville in 29 years.

In addition to providing some outstanding blocking for TCU's vaunted running attack, Sharp earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 as he caught 42 passes for 596 yards and seven touchdowns. Sharp spent two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons before returning to his alma mater in 1988.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from TCU in 1985 and his master's degree in liberal arts in 1992.

Sharp and his wife, Cindy, both natives of Boerne, Texas, are the parents of two daughters: Alexandra and Andrea.

TONY TADEMY

LINEBACKERS

Louisiana Tech, 1983

Fourth season at TCU

Tony Tademy is in his fourth season at TCU after joining the Horned Frog football staff in June 2005.

Tademy has coached at least two All-Mountain West Conference selections in each of his first three years.

Jason Phillips and Robert Henson were both cited for the third consecutive time in 2007. Additionally, Phillips was named by Dave Campbell's Texas Football as the state's Best Linebacker.

David Hawthorne, a three-year starter (2005-07), signed a free-agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks.

In 2005, Tademy's first season, TCU's top three linebackers featured a pair of redshirt freshmen (Phillips and Henson) and a sophomore (Hawthorne). The Frogs were still able to post an 11-1 record with a defensive unit that led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). Phillips became the first freshman defensive player in MWC history to be named first- or second-team all-conference. He was also a Freshman All-American.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Tademy spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at McKinney (Texas) High School.

Tademy has been in the coaching profession since earning his bachelor's degree in general studies from Louisiana Tech in 1983. While an undergrad, he played linebacker and helped the Bulldogs to a pair of Independence Bowl appearances.

Tademy's first full-time assistant coaching stint came at VMI from 1985 to 1986. He served as the linebackers and defensive line coach, working with current TCU assistant head coach and offensive line coach Eddie Williamson.

Tademy coached the 1987 season at his alma mater, serving as the inside linebackers coach. He later became the offensive line and specialists coach at Howard University in Washington, D.C. He also coached the linebackers and was the recruiting coordinator in his three-year stint at Howard.

After one year as the defensive line coach at Northeast Louisiana University and a short stay at Suitland (Md.) High School, Tademy spent three seasons (1994-96) at the University of Houston where he worked with the defensive ends under coach Kim Helton and helped the Cougars to the 1996 Liberty Bowl.

Tademy returned to the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Texas City (Texas) High School from 1997-98, before taking over as the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1999-01. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Blinn College before becoming the defensive coordinator at McKinney in 2003.

A Jacksonville, Ark., native, Tademy and his wife, Maria, have two sons: A.J. and Victor.

A veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks, Eddie Williamson is in his eighth season at TCU as the offensive line coach. He was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 2002.

Williamson has coached eight All-Mountain West Conference selections over the last three seasons. Center Blake Schlueter was a second-team pick in 2007 with tackle Marshall Newhouse an honorable-mention choice.

Tackle Herb Taylor was first-team All-MWC in 2005 and 2006 before the Kansas City Chiefs made him a sixth-round draft pick.

Michael Toudouze, also a tackle, was first-team All-MWC in 2005 and a fifth-round selection of the Indianapolis Colts.

With four new starters on the offensive line in 2006, TCU allowed just 13 sacks. It was the lowest total in the MWC and tied for the sixth-best mark nationally. In 2005, with three new starters, the Frogs surrendered the league's second-fewest sacks.

With Williamson's troops paving the way, the Frogs have produced a pair of 1,000-yard rushers and a Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year in the last seven seasons.

Williamson came to Fort Worth from Wake Forest, where he served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. He joined the WFU staff in January 2000, after previously working as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas Southern.

Prior to his tenure at Texas Southern, Williamson served as an assistant coach at Baylor, North Carolina, Wake Forest, South Carolina, Georgia, Duke and Furman.

Williamson also has experience as a head coach, serving in that role at VMI from 1985-88.

A part of 15 bowl teams, Williamson's college coaching career began soon after graduating from Davidson College in 1974.

A native of Pendleton, S.C., Williamson was a standout linebacker for three seasons at Davidson (1971-73). He graduated in 1974 and went on to earn his master's degree from Furman in 1976, where he served as a graduate assistant.

Williamson and his wife, Patty, have three children: Eddie III, Carrie Beth and Tricia.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

UTEP, 1987

Eighth season at TCU

Don Sommer is in his eighth year as TCU's head strength and conditioning coach after arriving on campus in January 2001.

In his capacity, Sommer is responsible for the overall direction, design and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for all sports at TCU.

In the 2005-06 athletics season, TCU led the nation with five football players and a total of 10 student-athletes receiving All-America honors from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Sommer came to TCU after serving in a similar capacity at the University of Missouri for two years. He had been part of the Tiger program since 1989, serving first as a graduate assistant for two years before assuming the assistant strength and conditioning coaching post in 1991.

Sommer was one of 10 individuals to receive the prestigious certification of "Master Strength & Conditioning Coach" at the 2003 Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) national conference. He joined the existing 26 Master Strength & Conditioning Coaches, bringing the total number of MSCCs in the world to 36 at the time of his certification.

Sommer is a graduate of the University of Texas-El Paso with a bachelor's degree in education. He was a four-year letterman and starter for the Miners' football squad before playing professionally with the Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts.

Sommer returned to the classroom following his playing career and earned his master's degree in health education from Missouri.

Sommer and his wife, Cindy, have two children: Dayne and Kaylin.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Even without standout defensive end Tommy Blake on the field, TCU's dominating defense pitched a season-opening shutout.

The No. 22 Horned Frogs gave up some yards before halftime, but not any points in a 27-0 victory Saturday over Baylor -- the first of three former instate Southwest Conference rivals TCU plays in the opening month of the season.

Andy Dalton threw for 205 yards and a touchdown in his first college start, and Justin Watts and Ryan Christian ran for scores as the Frogs won their ninth straight game. Chris Manfredini kicked two field goals after missing wide right on a 29-yard attempt during the opening drive.

The Frogs had three of their four interceptions and held Baylor to only 78 yards after halftime. Baylor had 204 yards in the first half.

Chase Ortiz, TCU's other All-MWC defensive end, got to quarterback Blake Szymanski and knocked the ball loose on the first play after halftime. The play was initially called a fumble recovered by the Frogs. Even though the play was overturned and made an incomplete pass after being reviewed, the tone was set for the second half.

TCU's last shutout was a 52-0 win at home against San Diego State last November. Baylor was shut out for the first time since 2005, when it was blanked in consecutive games against Texas Tech (28-0) and Texas (62-0).

Linebacker Jason Phillips made a nifty pickoff early in the fourth quarter, reaching back to grab Szymanski's pass thrown behind the intended receiver. Phillips returned it 34 yards to the Baylor 20, setting up Dalton's 14-yard TD pass to Ervin Dickerson that made it 24-0.

Dalton was 18-for-30 passing. But he had an interception and a fumble, losing the ball at the Baylor 1 on a keeper later in the first quarter.

Szymanski won a four-quarterback battle this fall, a competition that included a 25-year-old senior transfer from Kent State and a junior college transfer. He was 23-of-47 passing for 216 yards with three of the interceptions.

Watts (1 yard) and Christian (12 yards) scored in the second quarter to give TCU a 14-0 lead.

TCU has won its last five games against Big 12 teams, a streak that started with a season-opening victory at Oklahoma in 2005.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Colt McCoy passed for a touchdown, set up another with a long run, and the Texas defense carried the No.7 Longhorns to a 34-13 win over No. 19 TCU.

McCoy, who threw two first-half interceptions, including one that was returned for a touchdown, cut a 10-0 TCU lead in the third quarter with a 33-yard strike to Nate Jones.

The Texas defense did the rest. Brandon Foster returned a fumble by TCU punter Derek Walsh for a TD and the Longhorns held the Horned Frogs to 251 totals yards.

Jones had eight catches for 91 yards and Jamaal Charles tacked on a 39-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter with just under three minutes left. McCoy finished 25-of-38 for 239 yards. Charles finished with 134 yards, most coming in the second half.

McCoy's shaky start led to TCU's early lead and had the purple-clad Horned Frogs fans sprinkled throughout the stadium thinking they might get the win.

Torrey Stewart faked a blitz, then dropped off and snagged an easy interception. From there, it was a race to the end zone. Linebacker Jason Phillips got a good block on the McCoy, leaving Stewart to run straight toward a large section of TCU fans.

Another interception by David Roach left McCoy holding up his arms as if to ask "What happened?" and set up Chris Manfredini's 19-yard field goal.

Shut out in the first half, Texas got untracked in the third quarter, rolling up nearly 150 yards and keeping the Horned Frogs off the field. TCU didn't have a first down in the second half until midway through the fourth.

On his TD pass, McCoy rolled to his right to avoid the rush, then floated an easy pass to Jones who was dragging across the middle of the end zone.

Texas had tied it 10-10 before McCoy's long run set up the go-ahead score. Dropping back to pass, he saw the middle come open and took off running to the TCU 1. Vondrell McGee punched in the TD two plays later.

TCU got within 27-13 on Manfredini's second field goal late in the fourth, but Texas recovered the onside kick. On 3rd-and-6, Charles burst up the middle for the final score.

USAFA, Colo. (AP) - Ryan Harrison's 33-yard field goal on second down gave Air Force a 20-17 overtime victory over TCU.

Harrison's winner followed a miss by TCU's Chris Manfredini, whose 36-yard attempt hit the left upright on the first possession of overtime. The Falcons had tied it on Jim Ollis' 71-yard TD run on an option pitch from Shaun Carney with 5:55 left.

Twice in the third quarter, the Horned Frogs were turned away near the goal line, on a blocked field goal and an interception. Finally, Dalton hit Walter Bryant in the back of the end zone for an 11-yard score one play after the Frogs got a first down by the nose of the football, to make it 17-3 with 13:10 left.

But Carney responded by hitting Travis Dekker for 50 yards, setting up a 9-yard touchdown strike to Keith Madsen that pulled the Falcons within a touchdown with 8 minutes remaining.

The Falcons gave up great field position to TCU when Horned Frogs up-man Derek Moore recovered the onside kick, but Air Force forced a three-and-out and took over at its 20. On fourth-and-1 from the Falcons 29, Carney pitched to Ollis, who scampered 71 yards for the tying touchdown with 5:55 left.

TCU capitalized on a blocked punt and an interception to take a 10-3 halftime lead despite an offense without tailback Aaron Brown, who missed his second straight game with a knee injury. Stephen Hodges sliced through the Falcons' widespread punt formation to block Harrison's first punt, and Andy Burrell recovered at the Air Force 27. But the Frogs managed to move just five yards and had to settle for Manfredini's 39-yard field goal.

Manfredini's 20-yarder in the third quarter was blocked by Chris Thomas, the 100th blocked kick by Air Force since 1990.

After Steven Coleman's interception at midfield, TCU again had trouble moving the ball. The Frogs committed three penalties and a fumble but still managed to drive downfield for the touchdown on Dalton's 5-yard fade pass to Ervin Dickerson just before he tumbled out of bounds.

After Harrison was wide right on a 50-yard field goal try that was plenty long enough, the Horned Frogs drove to the Falcons 22 before Garrett Rybak forced and recovered a fumble by Christian at the end of an 11-yard scamper.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - TCU scored on a blocked punt and an interception return, then held on through a scoreless second half to beat SMU 21-7.

The victory avenged TCU's only loss of the 2005 season in the first meeting of the crosstown rivals since then.

Both teams squandered multiple scoring opportunities. TCU lost two fumbles inside the SMU 20-yard line, and the Mustangs were 0-for-3 on fourth down inside the TCU 25.

The Horned Frogs had as many touchdowns and first downs - two - in the first 20 minutes of the game. They led 14-7 thanks to touchdowns off a blocked punt and an interception.

Colin Jones blocked Thomas Morstead's punt, and Bart Johnson picked it up and took it 17 yards into the end zone for a 7-7 tie with 4:14 left in the first quarter. Robert Henson scored on a 43-yard interception return with 11:47 remaining in the first half.

Backup quarterback Marcus Jackson replaced starter Andy Dalton for a series in the first half and led TCU on a 16-play, 78-yard drive that ended with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Derek Moore.

Jackson and Dalton spent the rest of the game rotating at quarterback, with Jackson completing six of 12 passes for 68 yards and Dalton five of 14 attempts for 40 yards.

SMU quarterback Justin Willis was 19-of-31 for 203 yards, and the Mustangs held a 12-minute advantage in time of possession.

TCU, which was ranked as high as No. 19, snapped a two-game losing streak. SMU lost its 16th consecutive nonconference road game.

DeMyron Martin scored on a 15-yard run for SMU in the first quarter. He finished with 100 yards on 19 carries.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Backup quarterback Marcus Jackson rushed for two touchdowns and threw for another to lead TCU past Colorado State 24-12 Saturday night.

Starter Andy Dalton suffered an injury on TCU's opening drive. Jackson had a 4-yard touchdown run on his first play of the game.

Jackson was 11-for-26 passing for 137 yards and carried 17 times for 38 yards.

TCU (3-2, 1-1 Mountain West) played without defensive end Tommy Blake, who was placed on medical leave Tuesday for undisclosed reasons. Blake, who came into the season as a top NFL prospect, will miss at least one more game.

TCU's Aaron Brown, who has been slowed this season with a knee injury, rushed for 124 yards on 22 carries. It was his fifth career 100-yard rushing game.

Colorado State (0-4, 0-1) scored on its first possession when Jason Smith booted a 47-yard field goal.

Jackson was 0-for-3 passing in the first quarter, but heated up in the second.

On TCU's season-best 90-yard drive, Jackson completed four passes for 73 yards. He connected with Shae Reagan on a 4-yard pass to put the Horned Frogs ahead 14-3.

Chris Manfredini's 19-yard field goal gave the Frogs a 17-3 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, TCU scored again when Jackson rolled out to his left for his second 4-yard touchdown run.

Colorado State finished the scoring on Smith's 27-yard field goal and Caleb Hanie's 54-yard touchdown pass to Damon Morton. The two-point conversion failed, leaving the score at 24-12 a minute into the fourth quarter.

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) - Hoost Marsh caught two touchdowns while Devin Moore and Wynel Seldon combined for 235 yards rushing as Wyoming beat TCU 24-21 on Saturday.

The Horned Frogs scored back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter, but that wasn't enough to cross an 18-point gap Wyoming (3-1, 1-0) created on two touchdowns and a field goal earlier in the half.

TCU place-kicker Chris Manfredini had a chance to tie the game with a 48-yard field goal attempt as time expired, but the kick bounced off the right upright.

Marsh was wide open in the third quarter for an 8-yard catch and a score of 14-6, ending a 47-yard drive that began when Cowboys cornerback Michael Medina picked off Andy Dalton.

On the Cowboys' next possession, three pass interference calls against TCU helped move Wyoming to the Frogs' 2-yard line. Seldon ran in for a 21-6 Cowboys lead.

Billy Vinnedge kicked a 23-yard field goal for a 24-6 Cowboys lead in the fourth quarter, but TCU fought back, scoring the final 15 points.

Dalton connected with Ervin Dickerson for a 27-yard play and the Frogs' first touchdown of the game. Dalton then threw to Donald Massey for a 2-point conversion and a score of 24-14.

On TCU's next possession, Bart Johnson caught a 5-yard pass for the final score on his first career reception.

Marsh's first touchdown, a 65-yard reception, put Wyoming ahead 7-3 in the first quarter.

TCU came within 7-6 on a 32-yard Manfredini field goal at the end of the first half. Manfredini also kicked a 51-yarder, a career best, on the Frogs' first possession.

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) - Aaron Brown scored on a short run with 4:13 remaining to complete a 14-point comeback, and Robert Henson batted away Tavita Pritchard's fourth-down pass to preserve TCU's 38-36 victory over Stanford.

A week after slowing down USC's offense and pulling off one of the signature upsets in college football history, the Cardinal could not solve the TCU passing attack.

Andy Dalton threw for 344 yards and two touchdowns as TCU ended a two-game slide. Brown rushed for 91 yards and caught five passes for 45 yards and a touchdown, and Jimmy Young caught three passes for 110 yards.

The teams traded scores through most of the first three quarters, with Anthony Kimble's 15-yard touchdown early in the second half putting the Cardinal ahead 28-17.

Stanford extended its lead when Derek Belch kicked a 37-yard field goal with 3:54 left in the third quarter following a drive that lasted more than six minutes.

It took the Frogs two plays and 37 seconds to draw within 31-24. Dalton hooked up with Young over the middle, who outran the Cardinal defense for a 70-yard touchdown.

Stanford then went three-and-out and the Frogs went 60 yards in nine plays, and a 2-yard pass from Dalton to Brown on fourth down tied it with 9:44 left.

Belch's second field goal, this time from 40 yards, put Stanford ahead 34-31 with 7:22 remaining.

Dalton's 31-yard pass to Donald Massey set up Brown's go-ahead touchdown.

Stanford took a 21-17 lead into halftime as Pritchard threw touchdown passes of 5 yards to Evan Moore and 40 yards to Richard Sherman. Kimble followed with a rushing touchdown.

The Frogs scored a pair of rushing touchdowns in the first half on Dalton's 6-yard run and Joseph Turner's 17-yard dash. Chris Manfredini added a 25-yard field goal just before the break.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Darrell Mack pounded his way for 100 yards rushing with a touchdown and Utah won its fourth straight game since starting quarterback Brian Johnson returned from injury, beating TCU 27-20.

Johnson completed 13 of 20 passes for 120 yards and a touchdown. Mack and Johnson accounted for all but seven of Utah's 227 total yards.

Chris Manfredini kicked a 41-yard field goal for TCU with 2:07 left and the Frogs thought they had the ball back when David Hawthorne recovered an onside kick. But officials ruled Hawthorne touched the ball before it went 10 yards, and confirmed that after a lengthy replay review.

TCU's Andy Dalton was 20-of-45 for 159 yards with four interceptions. He had been picked only four times the first six games and was coming off a 344-yard game in a win at Stanford.

Martail Burnett, Utah's 262-pound senior defensive end, returned one of the interceptions 55 yards for a touchdown with 54 seconds left in the first half. It put Utah ahead 24-14.

Louie Sakoda's 41-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter was Utah's only score after halftime.

Mack's 1-yard TD run capped a game-opening 58-yard drive, and Sakoda kicked a 31-yard field goal after Dalton's first interception.

The Horned Frogs used special teams and a trick play early in the second quarter to erase a 10-0 deficit.Daryl Washington blocked his third punt of the season, deflecting Sakoda's kick straight up into the air. The ball bounced into the hands of Stephen Hodge, who returned it 31 yards for a touchdown. Utah then went three-and-out, and Brian Bonner had a 30-yard punt return.

After Dalton handed off to Jeremy Kerley sweeping right, it was a throwback to Dalton, who gained 27 yards to the 1. That set up Marcus Brock's TD run that put TCU up 14-10.

Utah went ahead to stay at 17-14 when Johnson threw a 24-yard TD to Marquis Wilson with 3:20 left in the first half.

Manfredini, who later missed a 22-yarder, made a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to get the Frogs to 24-17. His kick hit the left upright and barely cleared the crossbar when it dropped straight down.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Andy Dalton threw for two touchdowns and TCU held New Mexico to 28 rushing yards in a 37-0 victory Saturday.

Dalton connected with Derek Moore for a 29-yard touchdown in the second quarter and with Ervin Dickerson for a 1-yard score in the fourth.

The Horned Frogs (5-4, 2-3 Mountain West) also scored on a 7-yard pass from Marcus Jackson, who shared time at quarterback with Dalton, to Marcus Brock during a 17-point second quarter.

Chris Manfredini kicked field goals of 28, 25, and 17 yards to help TCU end a three-game winning streak by New Mexico (6-3, 3-2).

TCU hounded Lobos quarterback Donovan Porterie and held running back Rodney Ferguson to 13 carries for 28 yards, 81 below his season average. Porterie was 7-for-23 passing for 76 yards and was sacked twice.

Even completed passes turned disastrous for New Mexico. Travis Brown fumbled after a catch, and Frogs cornerback Rafael Priest returned it 13 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter.

Joseph Turner led TCU's balanced offense with a career-high 115 yards on 28 carries. The Frogs had 421 total yards -- 238 rushing and 183 passing -- while holding the Lobos to 119.

The rushing yards and total offense were New Mexico's lowest since a 55-14 loss to Oregon State in the 2003 Las Vegas Bowl. The Lobos hadn't been shut out since 2002 against Texas Tech.

New Mexico has lost all three games against TCU in the Mountain West. Each time, the Frogs have led at least 24-0, although the Lobos came back to make things interesting the past two years.

PROVO, Utah (AP) - Max Hall passed for 305 yards and a touchdown and Brigham Young's defense came up with two sacks in an 11-second span to seal a 27-22 victory over TCU.

The Horned Frogs made BYU fans sweat a little during the crisp fall night with a 94-yard scoring drive that cut the lead to 27-22 with 3:49 remaining. The Frogs kicked off and the defense held, forcing BYU to punt after a tipped pass was overturned on review and had the ball at its own 32 with 2:39 left in the game.

But David Nixon sacked Andy Dalton on second down, then on fourth-and-8, Bryan Kehl pounced on Dalton as he lost his footing with 1:58 left. The Cougars ran out the clock and won for the 10th straight time at home.

Harvey Unga ran for two touchdowns and Austin Collie had four catches for 109 yards for the Cougars. Chris Manfredini kicked three field goals for TCU and Dalton was 18-of-30 for 165 yards and a touchdown.

Dalton's 7-yard touchdown pass to Bart Johnson with 3:49 remaining got the Frogs within a touchdown and gave TCU a chance to win it after the defense stopped the Cougars.

On the first series of the second half, Dalton threw a pass right to BYU linebacker Kelly Poppinga, who returned it 22 yards to the 3. Unga scored on the next play to put BYU up 24-9 with 13:58 left in the third quarter.

Marcus Brock scored on a 1-yard run that cut the lead to 24-15 after the 2-point conversion failed.

BYU's defense came up with another key stop when TCU went for it on fourth-and-1 at the BYU 32 and Aaron Brown got knocked back a yard. The Cougars got the ball back and drove to the 11 for Mitch Payne's 29-yard field goal, which put BYU ahead 27-15 with 13:06 left.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Andy Dalton rushed for two touchdowns and directed TCU to another first-half score in a 34-10 win over UNLV.

The Horned Frogs earned bowl eligibility after scoring touchdowns on their first four possession. Dalton ran for a career-high 73 yards, scoring on a pair of 3-yard runs.

TCU's ground attack, which averages about 140 yards per game, amassed 251 yards, 181 in the first half. Besides Dalton, Aaron Brown and Joseph Turner had rushing touchdowns.

Trailing 28-0, UNLV cut into the TCU lead just before halftime when Travis Dixon threw a 32-yard touchdown pass to Frank Summers. The Rebels added a field goal in the third quarter.

Brown, TCU's leading rusher, injured his left ankle late in the third quarter and left the field on crutches.

UNLV lost its seventh straight game and its 14th straight conference road game. TCU has outscored the Rebels 110-23 in the past three meetings.

SAN DIEGO (AP) - Joseph Turner ran for a career-high 226 yards and four touchdowns to lead TCU to a 45-33 win over San Diego State on Saturday night.

Turner helped the Horned Frogs overcome San Diego State's 17-0 first quarter lead. He scored his first touchdown on a 5-yard run late in the second quarter to give TCU its first lead of the game at 21-17.

Turner then added TD runs of 9, 14 and 41 yards in the third quarter as the Horned Frogs took a 42-27 lead.

TCU's offense ran up 694 yards in total offense on 111 plays and made 39 first downs, the most ever allowed by San Diego State. The Horned Frogs also held the ball for 39 minutes, 19 seconds compared to only 20:41 for the Aztecs.

Andy Dalton, who scored on a 14-yard run, completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards for TCU.

The Aztecs, who gained 441 yards in total offense, took a 17-0 lead in the first quarter, 14 of those points coming after TCU turnovers.

Kevin O'Connell threw a 97-yard touchdown pass to Chaz Schilens after Dalton's fumbled snap at the 1-yard line. It was the longest pass play in San Diego State history and the longest play ever allowed by TCU. Following another turnover, Davon Brown scored on a 3-yard run for a 17-0 lead at the 5:43 mark.

O'Connell, who had a 12-yard touchdown run late in the game, also threw a 6-yard TD pass to Brett Swain with 34 seconds left to take a 24-21 halftime lead. O'Connell completed 26 of 51 passes for 366 yards.

HOUSTON (AP) - Justin Watts had scored exactly one touchdown in his career at TCU before the Texas Bowl.

TD No. 2 for Watts helped the Horned Frogs end the season with a bowl victory for the third straight season, something they haven't done in almost 70 years.

The backup running back scored the go-ahead touchdown early in the fourth quarter to help TCU to a 20-13 win over Houston on Friday night in the Texas Bowl.

The junior wove through the defense and danced into the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 and gave TCU (8-5) its first lead of the game against its old Southwest Conference rival.

He and Ryan Christian split carries against Houston (8-5) after starter Joseph Turner injured his knee in the first quarter and didn't return.

Quarterback Andy Dalton also ran for a touchdown for TCU. It was 1936-39 when the Horned Frogs last had a run of bowl victories as long as this one. They started their current bowl winning streak with a win over Iowa State in this bowl in 2005 when it was known as the Houston Bowl.

Dalton was 21-of-30 for 249 yards with one interception. Watts and Christian combined for 88 yards rushing on 12 carries.

A 15-yard leaping reception by Jimmy Young on third down kept the drive that ended in Watts' touchdown going. Young outjumped Carson Blackmon to grab the ball and managed to keep his left leg in bounds as he landed.

It was initially ruled an incomplete pass, but the call was overturned after a review by officials.

The Cougars had a chance to tie it with less than 30 seconds to play but Case Keenum's pass sailed just beyond the fingertips of Jeron Harvey in the end zone. He had two more shots at the end zone, but the ball fell short on the first one and Chase Ortiz hit him as he threw the second one to end the game.

Keenum was hurried and harassed by TCU most of the night and was sacked five times. He was 23-of-38 for 335 yards. Donnie Avery had 10 receptions for 120 yards.

The Cougars extended their bowl losing streak to eight games. Their last bowl win came in the 1980 Garden State Bowl.

The Horned Frogs got to the Houston 2 later in the fourth quarter, but had to settle for a 35-yard field goal after a holding penalty followed by a 6-yard loss by Christian on third down.

Houston made it 20-13 with a 32-yard field goal by T.J. Lawrence with 1:57 remaining. Houston had a first down from the TCU 14, but Keenum was sacked by Ortiz for a 5-yard loss on third down to bring out Lawrence.

The Cougars tried an onside kick after the field goal, but TCU's Brian Bonner recovered the ball.

Houston attempted a 48-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter but it sailed wide right.

TCU's Chris Manfredini hit a 29-yard field goal with 6:30 remaining in the third quarter to tie the game at 10-all.

The Horned Frogs shut down Houston's star running back Anthony Alridge. He entered the game with 1,568 yards rushing for the season and managed just 28 yards on 15 carries Friday.

A 39-yard field goal by T.J. Lawrence 10 seconds before halftime put UH ahead 10-7.

TCU's Dalton capped an 11-play, 75-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter that tied the game at 7-all.

Dalton, who grew up in the Houston suburb of Katy, was the game's most valuable player.

Dalton broke TCU's single-season record for completions with 208 when he found Shae Reagan for a 9-yard reception later in the second quarter. The previous mark of 207 was set by Max Knake in 1993.

Andre Kohn's 67-yard catch and run near the end of the first quarter put Houston ahead 7-0.

TCU

TCU HISTORY

2008 TCU FOOTBALL

TCU FOOTBALL THROUGH THE AGES

GENERAL

TCU is ready to embark upon its 112th year of Horned Frog football. Through all the years, with the exception of 1900, Purple ballclubs have competed on an organized basis. Even during the war years, as well as through the Great Depression, each fall Horned Frog football squads have done battle on the gridiron each fall.

BEGINNINGS

The newfangled game of football, created in the East, made a quiet and unofficial appearance on the TCU campus (AddRan College as it was then known and located in Waco, Texas, or nearby Thorp Spring) in the fall of 1896. It was then that several of the college's more robust students, along with the enthusiastic support of a couple of young "profs," Addison Clark, Jr., and A.C. Easley, banded together to form a team. Three games were actually played that season ... all after Thanksgiving. The first contest was an 8-6 victory over Toby's Business College of Waco and the other two games were with the Houston Heavyweights, a town team.

By 1897 the new sport had progressed and AddRan enlisted its first coach, Joe J. Field, to direct the team. Field's ballclub won three games that autumn, including a first victory over Texas A&M. The only loss was to the University of Texas, 18-10. Those games with the Aggies and Longhorns launched football feuds that carried forth for 99 years. In 1899, the first game with Baylor was played to launch still another traditional rivalry. By 1902, the name of the school had been changed to Texas Christian University. The nickname, "Horned Frogs," had been added a few years earlier because "of the abundance of those creatures around campus."

TIAA ERA

In 1909, the university became a member of the old TIAA (Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association). Several TCU teams recorded outstanding records, including the 1912 Horned Frog unit, which had an 8-1 mark with the lone loss coming against Texas, a team that the Frogs did not beat until 1929.

In 1920, a post-World War I team produced TCU's best record to date, winning nine straight games in the regular season. However, a post season bowl (the Dixie Bowl) contest was booked in Fort Worth with the famed "Prayin' Colonels" of Centre College. That proved to be a mistake as Centre trounced the Purples, 63-7. L.R. (Dutch) Meyer was an end on that TCU grid eleven.

SWC EARLY YEARS

In 1923, TCU was admitted to the still-infant Southwest Athletic Conference, a league which was destined to become the major collegiate league of the Southwest. In their initial season in the SWC, the Horned Frogs played three games and posted a record of two wins and one loss.

Though a young member of the SWC, over the next few years the Horned Frogs still offered some excellent results. In 1924, they won one and lost five games to finish in the cellar for the only time until 1953. In 1929, under the late Francis Schmidt, TCU claimed its first SWC title. Led by a brilliant young quarterback, Howard Grubbs, who later became the executive secretary of the Southwest Conference and the Horned Frogs' first in a line of great passers, TCU won four straight league games.

The Frogs clinched their first title with a 7-7 tie against SMU in the final contest of '29. During Schmidt's regime, which lasted through the 1933 campaign, the Frogs were double tough. They finished third in 1930, second in '31 and won the SWC title again in 1932 with a perfect 6-0 record. It was the first time that one Southwest Conference team had defeated all the others, since a round robin had not been played in any of the previous seasons.

THE 1970s

The decade of the 1970s was, for the most part, one of disappointment for the fans of TCU football. Fred Taylor, the successor to Abe Martin in 1966, guided Horned Frog teams through four seasons, with the best record being a modest 4-6. Jim Pittman was hired from a successful bowl campaign at Tulane, but tragedy struck midway through the 1971 season when Pittman was felled by a fatal heart attack during the Baylor game. His chief aide, Billy Tohill, took over and piloted TCU through the 1973 season. Then another former Frog great, Jim Shofner, returned from the NFL and led the Horned Frogs until 1977. The coaching door then swung open for F. A. Dry, who brought some impressive credentials from Tulsa. Dry's TCU teams became known for hard-ball defense and impressive aerial displays, but a 3-8 mark in 1982 proved to be Dry's best in six seasons and yet another change of direction was mandated.

Similarly, the increase of 11,062 folks per game (a 42.5 percent increase) was one of the nation's best in 1994. Sullivan resigned in November 1997 after six seasons at the Horned Frog grid helm.

THE WAC YEARS

TCU Football in 1996 was almost a double-dose of euphoria. Not only did it mark the 100th-year celebration for the sport, but the University officially became a new member of the expanded Western Athletic Conference as well. The Horned Frog program joined teams from Rice, SMU and Tulsa to form Quadrant 1 of the Mountain Division. Quadrant 2 members were Air Force, UNLV, Colorado State and Wyoming. Pacific Division members of the WAC were New Mexico, UTEP, BYU, along with Fresno State, San Jose State, Hawai'i and San Diego State.

CONFERENCE USA

The Frogs took on a new look in 2001 as they made the move into Conference USA. The 11-member football league included Army, Cincinnati, East Carolina, Houston, Louisville, Memphis, Southern Miss, South Florida, Tulane and UAB. Despite the change in leagues, TCU continued its strong run with a school record six consecutive bowl game appearances and back-to-back top 25 finishes for the first time since the 1950s.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

TCU began Mountain West Conference play in 2005 and immediately posted a record-breaking campaign. The Frogs, picked to finish sixth, went 8-0 in their debut season to claim their first outright conference title since 1958. TCU became just the third team in MWC history to go undefeated and the first to be 8-0. The Frogs are 18-6 in their opening three seasons of MWC play, which ranks second among all league teams.

ALL-TIME COACHES

DUTCH MEYER ERA

In 1934, with Schmidt being lured to Ohio State, Leo R. (Dutch) Meyer became the Horned Frog grid coach. For the next 19 years, Meyer turned out top teams and produced a bevy of individual standouts, including Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich, Darrell Lester and many others. During Baugh's college days, the Frogs won 12, lost one in 1935; and won nine, lost two and tied a pair in 1936. As a junior, Baugh led TCU to a 3-2 victory in the Sugar Bowl and a national title, but was never able to help the Frogs claim a SWC title.

His successor, Davey O'Brien, took over leadership of the Frogs for the 1937 and 1938 seasons, and during his senior year, paced the Purples to their best record in history. That magnificent '38 ballclub was considered one of the Southwest Conference's finest some 50 years later. That fall, Meyer's Horned Frogs rolled to 11 straight wins, including a 15-7 triumph over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. The club outscored its opponents – 269 to 60 – and never found itself behind, except briefly in the Sugar Bowl encounter. After the Sugar Bowl, the Frogs were crowned national champions.

In 1941, TCU finished a solid second place in the SWC and won another championship in '44. The Dutchman's final league crown came in 1951, two years before he became full-time athletics director (Meyer would later retire as TCU's A.D. in 1963).

ABE MARTIN ERA

When Meyer retired from coaching in 1953, his backfield assistant, Othol (Abe) Martin, took over the coaching reins. Abe installed the popular T-formation, and in just three short years had found the championship formula. His 1955 TCU ballclub, led by All-American Jim Swink, waltzed to nine victories in 10 games, the only loss being to Texas A&M. In 1958, Martin found the victory formula again with good quarterbacking and defense. In 1959, the Frogs disproved the critics to tie Texas and Arkansas for the crown, posting a 5-1 league record.

During his 14-year regime, Martin compiled a 76-64-7 mark in Frogland, directed the Purples to five post-season bowl games, and produced seven All-Americans.

JIM WACKER ERA

From 1983 through 1991, Horned Frog grid fortunes were in the hands of former NCAA Division II coaching legend Jim Wacker, who left opulent marks as well as two pairs of national championship trophies at both Southwest Texas State and Texas Lutheran. Wacker's first campaign at TCU produced only 1-8-2 results, but he steered the Horned Frogs to a dramatic 8-4 turnaround in 1984 en route to a Bluebonnet Bowl date. Several national, as well as Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors, ultimately were awarded to the bubbly Wacker. However, an NCAA probation for discovered infractions in 1985 affected the Frogs' rise over the next several seasons.

PAT SULLIVAN ERA

On January 2, 1992, Pat Sullivan was introduced as the 27th head coach in TCU football history. Sullivan probably is best remembered as a college quarterbacking great at Auburn, where he won the Heisman Trophy in 1971. Sullivan instilled confidence along with an appreciation for self-discipline into the TCU grid makeup during his initial campaign with the Horned Frogs.

Though the Sullivan influence on TCU's program was obvious from the outset, tangible proof of his impact in Frogland became somewhat pronounced during 1994. For the Horned Frog faithful it was a campaign of sweet memories and bona fide successes beginning in early fall with the official dedication of TCU's Walsh Complex, an ultra-impressive athletic training and weight-conditioning center. Powered by the most prolific offense in the Southwest Conference, an attack spearheaded by quarterback Max Knake and tailback Andre Davis, the Frogs fashioned a 7-4 regular-season mark. En route, they captured a share of the school's ninth SWC football championship, along with an invitation to the Poulan/WeedEater Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

Further, thanks largely to Fort Worth's Committee of 100, TCU's home-game attendance records were shattered. The per-game home average of 37,174 far exceeded any previous mark.

DENNIS FRANCHIONE ERA

In three seasons under Dennis Franchione, the TCU football program took a giant leap forward. In his first season, Fran led the Frogs to a 7-5 record, which included an upset win over USC in the Sun Bowl.

The Frogs, who were 1-10 in 1997 under Pat Sullivan, tied Louisville for the biggest turnaround in the country with the six-win improvement in 1998. Although many believed the Frogs stood no chance, Franchione guided the Frogs to a 28-19 win over the vaunted Trojans. The victory was the first bowl win since 1957, when TCU defeated Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Then in 1999, TCU claimed a share of the WAC title, earning a trip to the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl, where TCU knocked off East Carolina, 28-14. Tailback LaDainian Tomlinson led the country in rushing in 1999, averaging over 168 yards per game for a season total of 1,850 yards. The Frogs came back with one of the best seasons in school history as the new millennium got underway. Moving as high in the polls as No. 9 and carrying the nation's longest winning streak for a stretch, the Frogs put together a 10-2 campaign. Tomlinson again led the nation in rushing, this time with over 2,000 yards, en route to the Doak Walker Award. Following the season he was the fifth player selected in the NFL Draft.

GARY PATTERSON ERA

Gary Patterson has posted four 10-win seasons in the last six years, including three 11-win campaigns since 2003. No other head coach in TCU history has reached 10 victories more than twice.

In just seven years, Patterson has a 62-25 record to place third on the Horned Frogs' career victory chart. His .713 winning percentage is fourth all-time among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt. Patterson has had TCU ranked in the final Top 25 in four of his seven campaigns, including a No. 9 position in 2005 for the Frogs' highest appearance in a season-ending poll since 1959.

In his tenure, Patterson has coached 75 All-Conference selections, five All-Americans, seven Freshman All-Americans and one Academic All-American. He has had 16 players drafted with 36 in NFL camps. Patterson was the 2002 Conference USA and 2005 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He was also a 2003 finalist for Bobby Dodd and Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year honors. He appeared on the 2006 Bobby Dodd Watch List.

TCU has garnered national attention in nearly every season. The 2003 Frogs won their opening 10 games in making a BCS run, while the 2005 squad opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. The Frogs are 5-1 versus Big 12 opponents the last two seasons. TCU has recorded victories in the 2002 Liberty Bowl, 2005 Houston Bowl, 2006 Poinsettia Bowl and 2007 Texas Bowl.

TCU IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

1929 (No. 7)
TCU's first Southwest Conference championship team, led by halfback Cy Leland, quarterback Howard Grubbs and All-America guard Mike Brumbelow, finished the season undefeated (9-0-1) and was placed No. 7 in the nation in an unofficial AP ranking. The familiar AP poll of today was not originated until 1936.

1932 (No. 4)
The undefeated Horned Frogs (10-0-1) rose to true national prominence in '32 as they romped through the Southwest Conference race with ease and wound up No. 4 in the country in the final rankings of Illustrated Football magazine, the game's leading authority of the era. Six members of the starting line, anchored by All-America guard Johnny Vaught, were named all-conference, as were both halfbacks, Blanard Spearman and Red Oliver. When Pittsburgh was invited to the Rose Bowl over TCU, the Frogs tried to arrange a post-season game against Tulane, another highly regarded team, but nothing came of it.

1933 (No. 9)
Coach Francis Schmidt produced three teams in the nation's Top 10 during his five seasons at TCU. The 1933 squad was the third. Paced by halfback Charlie Casper, the Frogs rolled to a 9-2-1 record but closed fast with stunning victories over Texas (30-0), Rice (26-3) and SMU (26-6). This finish impressed the syndicated sportswriter Grantland Rice so much he put TCU No. 9 in the final national rankings of his popular annual ratings service known as Grantland Rice's Cities Service Football Guide.

1935 (No. 1 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS)
As a TCU lineup produced two All-Americans for the first time – quarterback Sammy Baugh and center Darrell Lester – the Christians reached the zenith of a national championship in the thrilling season of '35. The Frogs were tabbed No. 1 after the bowl games by the Williamson Rating System, the most authoritative poll in the land at the time. TCU wound up No. 1 after its 3-2 victory over powerful LSU in the Sugar Bowl. The Frogs' only loss had been a narrow one (20-14) to SMU in "The Game of the Century." But when the Mustangs were upset by Stanford 7-0 in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, the same afternoon that the Purple whipped LSU in New Orleans, Williamson crowned TCU No. 1.

1936 (No. 5)
Injuries, freaky upsets and a couple of foul-weather scoreless ties couldn't keep Sammy Baugh from repeating as an All-American and leading the Frogs to No. 5 in the nation in the final Williamson Rating System. Along the way, Baugh knocked off conference champion Arkansas, rudely upset the nation's last remaining perfect-record team, Santa Clara, and then won a duel with Marquette in the inaugural Cotton Bowl Classic. All of that left the Frogs with a 9-2-2 record.

1938 (No. 1 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS)
A dream season. This incredible Frog team handily went 11-0, including the 15-7 victory over No. 5 Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. TCU captured every meaningful No. 1 ranking – AP, Williamson, Helms – turned out eight all-conference players on various selections, and three All-Americans, quarterback Davey O'Brien, center Ki Aldrich, and tackle I.B. Hale. To say nothing of O'Brien winning the Heisman, Maxwell and Camp trophies. As the true national champions, the Frogs outpolled three other undefeated elevens in '38 – Tennessee, Oklahoma and Duke.

1941 (No. 10)
Quarterback cohorts Kyle Gillespie and Emery Nix led the Frogs to a 7-2-1 record with the aid of All-America tackle Derrell Palmer and all-conference end Bruce Alford. Their only losses were to Top 10 teams, No. 6 Fordham and No. 9 Texas A&M. But later, Nix sparked TCU to a memorable 14-7 upset of No. 1-ranked Texas, the Life century team. Ultimately, at the end of the regular season, the Williamson Rating System thought highly enough of the Frogs to rank them No. 10 in the nation. They became the first Southwest Conference team to play in the Orange Bowl, where they lost a wild one to Georgia, 40-26.

1951 (No. 10)
Sophomore Ray McKown, running and passing out of the old Dutch Meyer spread formation, carried the Frogs to their most surprising conference title with only a 6-4 record. Still, these Frogs were ranked No. 10 in the nation in the UPI poll at the season's end. In so doing, McKown earned All-America honors, as did Keith Flowers and tackle Doug Conaway. In the Cotton Bowl game, TCU outgained Bear Bryant's Kentucky team by a huge margin, but saw no fewer than five drives stall inside Kentucky's 10-yard line, and were outscored 20-7.

1955 (No. 5)
Jim Swink set rushing and scoring records galore as the Frogs loitered the whole season among the nation's elite and won the Southwest Conference championship. In the end, with a 9-1 regular season record, they were ranked No. 3 by the Litkenhouse System, No. 5 by UPI, and No. 6 by AP. Swink was a unanimous All-America halfback and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and center Hugh Pitts also made All-America.

1958 (No. 9)
The Frogs breezed to an 8-2 record and the conference crown behind the passing of Hunter Enis, the running of Jack Spikes and Marvin Lasater, and the line play of All-America tackle Don Floyd. TCU was ranked No. 9 in the final UPI poll and No. 10 by the AP. In the Cotton Bowl game they fought undefeated and No. 6-ranked Air Force to a 0-0 tie.

1959 (No. 7)
These Frogs basically put three All-Americas on the field with fullback Jack Spikes and tackles Don Floyd, a repeat selection, and Bob Lilly, who would be a unanimous choice in '60. They bruised their way to another 8-2 record, tying Texas and Arkansas for the conference title. When all the votes were in from the final polls, TCU was ranked No. 7 by AP and No. 8 by UPI.

2000 (No. 18 ESPN/USA TODAY COACHES; No. 21 AP)
LaDainian Tomlinson became one of college football's greatest ball carriers – only the second player in history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season and more than 5,000 in a career. Behind "LT," the Frogs sped to a 10-2 season record and the WAC championship. This performance enticed the Dunkel Index, one of the eight selectors for the Bowl Championship Series, to rate the Frogs No. 7 in the nation, their highest ranking in 40 seasons.

2002 (No. 22 ESPN/USA TODAY COACHES; No. 23 AP)
After a season-opening overtime loss at Cincinnati, the Frogs reeled off 10 wins in their next 11 games. The Frogs gained a share of the Conference USA title and posted an AXA Liberty Bowl win over Colorado State. Linebacker LaMarcus McDonald, the league's Defensive Player of the Year, led a squad that ranked first in the nation in both total defense and in stopping the run.

2003 (No. 24 ESPN/USA TODAY COACHES; No. 25 AP)
The Frogs reeled off 10 straight wins to open the season, climbing as high as number 10 in the national rankings. Their success, which included five three-point wins, caught the attention of the nation, as they moved to sixth in the BCS Standings, the highest ranking ever for a school from a non-BCS conference. A late season loss at Southern Miss kept the Frogs from winning their second straight conference title. The Horned Frogs hosted nationally-ranked Boise State in the inaugural PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl and dropped an exciting 34-31 contest. Nick Browne was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year and earned All-America accolades. Defensive end Bo Schobel set a school record for sacks while earning second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press. Head coach Gary Patterson was one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year honors.

2005 (No. 9 USA TODAY COACHES; No. 11 AP)
TCU (11-1, 8-0) closed the season ranked ninth by USA Today for its highest appearance in a final poll since finishing seventh in the 1959 campaign. The Frogs, one of just seven teams in the nation with 11 wins, concluded the year with 10 straight victories. It was the second-longest winning streak in the nation behind only national champion Texas (20). TCU opened and closed 2005 with victories over Big 12 bowl teams, winning at Oklahoma and then defeating Iowa State. Overall, the Frogs were 5-0 against bowl teams. TCU led the nation in interceptions (26), takeaways (40) and turnover margin (1.75, +21). TCU set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns, while its 398 points scored ranked second in Frog history. TCU, in its first season of Mountain West Conference play, became just the third team in league history to post an undefeated record (8-0). In the process, TCU captured its first outright league championship since sweeping through the Southwest Conference en route to the 1938 national title. TCU paced the Mountain West Conference with 18 all-conference selections with Cory Rodgers a consensus All-American at kick returner. Gary Patterson was the MWC Coach of the Year with tailback Aaron Brown named Freshman of the Year. Linebacker Jason Phillips and defensive end Tommy Blake were Freshman and Sophomore All-Americans, respectively. Phillips, a second-team selection, became the first freshman defensive player in league history to be first or second-team All-MWC.

2006 (No. 21 USA TODAY COACHES; No. 22 AP)
TCU (11-2, 6-2) posted its fourth 10-win season in the last five years. The Frogs became one of only five teams in the nation to reach 11 victories three times in the last four campaigns. With victories over Baylor and Texas Tech, TCU improved to 4-0 against Big 12 opponents in the last two seasons and 8-1 in its past nine games against teams from BCS conferences. The Frogs closed the year by winning their final eight games for the fourth-longest current streak in the nation. Earlier in the season, in a carryover from 2005, TCU won 13 in a row for the longest winning streak in the country. The Frogs finished the campaign ranked 21st by the Associated Press and 22nd in the USA Today poll. It represented the fifth time in the past seven years that TCU closed the season in the top 25. The Frogs ranked second nationally in total defense (234.9 yards per game) and run defense (60.8 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). TCU was one of three teams nationally to not allow a 100-yard rushing game by an opposing running back. Offensively, the Frogs were ninth nationally in rushing (194.6 yards per game) and 17th in total offense (408.5 yards per game). Thirteen Frogs combined for a total of 14 All-MWC selections. Safety Brian Bonner was a first-team pick as a return specialist and a second-team choice on defense. TCU placed four players on the first-team defense, including unanimous selection Tommy Blake at defensive end.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

1935

TCU was tabbed No. 1 in the nation by the Williamson System, the only rating organization to publish a list after the New Year's Day Bowl contest, and ranked among the top five teams in the country by all rating services at the conclusion of the regular season. Featuring stars Sammy Baugh and Darrell Lester, the Frogs won 10 straight games before falling to SWC Champion SMU in the next-to-last game of the regular season. The Horned Frogs later defeated LSU, 3-2, in the 1936 Sugar Bowl. TCU ended the year with a record of 12-1.

1938

This remarkable Frog combine was ranked No. 1 by all the rating systems. TCU's only undefeated and untied team won the SWC Championship, then followed that feat with a Sugar Bowl victory over Carnegie Tech, 15-7. The 1938 lineup included three All-Americans – Davey O'Brien, who was the first footballer to win the Walter Camp, Heisman and Maxwell trophies the same year, plus Ki Aldrich and I.B. Hale. The Frogs ended the season with a record of 11-0.

TCU AND THE HEISMAN TROPHY

In the 70-year history of the Heisman Trophy, five Horned Frogs have finished in the top-five in voting for the prestigious trophy.

Sammy Baugh finished fourth in 1936, the second year the trophy was presented.

In 1938, Davey O'Brien became the first football player from both TCU and the Southwest Conference to win the award.

Jim Swink finished second in 1955, while Kenneth Davis was the next Frog to receive serious consideration for the honor in 1984 when he finished fifth.

In 1999, LaDainian Tomlinson placed 14th as a junior. He was fourth after his senior season in 2000.

Davey O'Brien accepts the Heisman Trophy at New York's Downtown Athletic Club in 1938, the same year he led TCU to its second national championship.

TCU celebrates Davey O'Brien's historic Heisman Trophy in the Eucke Heritage Center, which is located directly outside of the Frogs' football offices.

THE IRON SKILLET: TCU-SMU SERIES

During the post-World War II college football boom, the TCU and SMU student body created a traveling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the rivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost. In 1993, the tradition was revived as SMU defeated TCU, 21-15. The skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.

1936 SUGAR BOWL

TCU 3, LSU 2 · Jan. 1, 1936

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Bernie Moore, coach of the LSU football team, was skeptical that TCU's 3 to 2 victory in the Sugar Bowl game was a conclusive test of the squads. "My conclusion of the game was that the slippery field eliminated at least 30 percent of the offensive power of both teams," he said. Dutch Meyer, coach of TCU, said he thought the contest before a capacity crowd of 35,000 was the "finest I've ever seen played in the rain."

Yesterday's "baseball score" game was a thriller which kept the spectators in their seats despite a slow rain which fell throughout the second half ... LSU scored in the second quarter after passes and runs brought the ball to the TCU two-inch line where it changed hands on downs. When (Sammy) Baugh attempted to pass from behind the goal line he stepped over the end zone, automatically giving LSU a safety for a two-point lead. The Texans came back in the same period to recover a Louisiana fumble on the Louisiana 40 and pushed down to the LSU 16. Taldon Manton then kicked a field goal from the Tiger 26. From that point on the game was a battle of mighty defensives..

TCU played most of the game minus the services of three of her brightest stars — Left Halfback George Kline, All-American Center Darrell Lester and Halfback Rex Clark ... Clark played only one down and that was by the courtesy of Coach Meyer who wanted the injured senior star to be able to say he played in the 1936 Sugar Bowl game ... Baugh made the longest run of the day — a 44-yard gallop.

1937 COTTON BOWL

TCU 16, Marquette 6 · Jan. 1, 1937

DALLAS — With a sling-back attack that whipped over a field goal and two touchdowns in the first 25 minutes of play and with a sturdy defense that piled up the Marquette Golden Avalanche, TCU captured a spectacular football game here this New Year's Day. The score in the Cotton Bowl classic was 16-6.

So sudden, sharp and dazzling was the sweep of action of the battle that 15,000 spectators, who braved threatening weather, forgot the gray gloom of the afternoon. Led by Sammy Baugh, who out-passed and outplayed "Buzz" Buivid to cinch his claim to the title of the greatest passer of the season, the Texans uncorked an offense that flared into long gains both on the ground and in the air. Although it was Baugh who paced the attack and won the attention of the crowd, it was L.D. Meyer who did the real damage..

He scored all of TCU's 16 points. He kicked a 33-yard field goal for the first three points in the opening minutes. Before the first quarter had ended, Meyer collaborated with Sambo on a 55-yard pass-and-run gain for the first Frog TD, and in the second quarter he took an 18-yard heave from Vic Montgomery for the last score. Meyer even converted after the first touchdown.

A 60-yard punt return by Art Guepe in the first quarter accounted for all of Marquette's points.

1939 SUGAR BOWL

TCU 15, Carnegie Tech 7 · Jan. 2, 1939

NEW ORLEANS, La. — It was with power, passes and kicking that the Christians made the two touchdowns and one field goal that enabled them to win, 15-7. Carnegie's most consistent method of attack was a bristling, quick-starting and hard-hitting offense, but it was with a brilliant 38-yard pass in the last seconds of the first half that the Skibos scored ... The second half started with the Pittsburghers leading, 7-6. The first time they got possession of the hoghide, the Frogs proved irresistible. Moving with giant strides, they went 80 yards and a touchdown on five plays.

TCU punted one time. That fact alone indicates accurately how fearfully effective was the ground-gaining maneuvers of the big white-shirted representatives ... The one punt figured in making TCU's first touchdown ... When the Skibos punted out, the TCU regulars took over and went 48 yards on 11 plays to take a 6-0 lead ...

Carnegie took the next kickoff and went to town with big, fast and tough George Muha doing most of the dirty work ... Earl Clark intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards to the Carnegie 35 yard-line, but Durward Horner, a TCU end, had been offsides so the play was called back ... It was on fourth down of this series of plays that Petey Moroz cut loose with his long fine pass for the Carnegie touchdown ...

The third quarter (Davey) O'Brien passed to Horner down the middle ... The big end caught the ball between two Skibos, but evaded both of them and ran 24 yards across the goal line.

1942 ORANGE BOWL

Georgia 40, TCU 26 · Jan. 1, 1942

MIAMI, Fla. — In the wildest, weirdest football battle ever waged in this corner of the country, the Georgia Bulldogs outscored the courageous TCU Horned Frogs 40-26 ... Coach Wally Butts' fast team, well-equipped on ground and in the air, almost chased the Frogs off the field for 35 minutes... The score mounted to 40-7 with only a few minutes played in the second half.

But the Frogs are not quitters ... Everything was against them. They couldn't hold the enemy, they couldn't move themselves and they were battered and weary from their empty-handed efforts. But there was too much tradition behind those purple shirts. Suddenly, almost as if a fresh wind had blown into the stadium, the tide turned. They knocked over three touchdowns in rapid order. They turned back every Georgia thrust. The great comeback in the last 25 minutes saved the Frogs from humiliation.

Bruce Alford was the Frog star ... He blocked a punt, he made two great catches for touchdowns... After the rest period, Texas supporters hoped for a rally. But Georgia stepped out and banged 80 yards for still another touchdown that promised to make it a rout ... From that moment to the final gun it was the Bulldogs who held on and the Frogs who ripped.

1945 COTTON BOWL

Oklahoma A&M 34, TCU 0 · Jan. 1, 1945

DALLAS — With speed, spirit and spiraling passes, the Cowboys of Oklahoma A&M completely out-classed the TCU Horned Frogs in the ninth annual Cotton Bowl football game here this crystal clear New Year's afternoon to win, 34-0. Except for the second quarter when they staved off repeated threats, the Frogs were never able to cope with the double-pronged attack ... The first touchdown, scored in the fifth minute, climaxed a 59-yard advance. The second whirled 61 yards, the third 62 yards, the fourth 40 yards and the fifth 66 yards .

The Frogs moved on the ground several times when in their own territory, but after crossing the 50-yard line they were always thwarted by the bulling tactics of the burly Cowboy line ... Only once did the Frogs get inside the A&M 35-yard line and that was on a pass interception.

Bob Ruff was the only TCU back who was able to gain with any consistency, although Jesse Mason did some good work for a short time.

Coach Dutch Meyer tried all kinds of defenses against the Aggies, including a seven-man line which moved fullback Cox into the line. None of them worked for more than a few minutes at a time. The Aggies were too good in too many different ways.

1948 DELTA BOWL

Mississippi 13, TCU 9 · Jan. 2, 1948

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Trailing a hard-trying TCU team by nine points, the great Charley Conerly suddenly soared to the dramatic heights of football throwing expected of him. In just five minutes his rifle arm accounted for two touchdowns as the Confederates bested the Christians, 13-9, in the first Delta Bowl game.

In the closing minutes of the third period, Conerly launched a passing flurry that carried exactly 80 yards in eight plays ... The Frogs, still going strong, marched right back to the Rebel 37 where an intercepted pass sat Conerly up in business again. This time he threw only two passes... and they ate up just 63 yards to win the ball game.

In more ways than one, it was a tough game for the Frogs to lose... But they fumbled badly, losing the ball twice at crucial moments.

There were nine minutes yet to play and the Frogs gave the enemy fans a heart attack by holding the leather. Just six of them from their one-yard line, where Otis Kelvey was dropped on the kickoff, the Christians powered right up field for 59 yards... But the last threat died when Knox's pass was batted up and intercepted by the Ole Miss linebacker on the Reb 38.

1952 COTTON BOWL

Kentucky 20, TCU 7 · Jan. 1, 1952

DALLAS — TCU, distressingly flat except for one magnificent minute-and-half surge late in the third quarter, succeeded only in making it a masterpiece of frustration. And so the four-times-beaten Wildcats from the Bluegrass State thoroughly trounced the Southwest Conference champions before a capacity throng of 75,349 ... 20-7. Kentucky scored on two surges of 52 and 57 yards in the first and second quarters to post its 13-0 halftime lead.

Frogs, who had bogged down once on the four, wasted another 59-yard push to the 24 early in the second quarter. Here, Clark intercepted a Mal Fowler pass returned to the Kentucky 43 and the Wildcats tromped on from here for 57 yards and another touchdown in 11 plays ... TCU made its 48-yard move to the five after this and came back later in the quarter with its 51-yard march to the one all for nothing ... (Gilbert) Bartosh drew his first chance of the game ... Here Bartosh called a direct snap — back Bobby Jack Floyd went 43 yards for touchdown on the longest run of the day.

Against the wind in the fourth Bartosh guided the Frogs 40 yards ... The TCU command sent in McKown to punt and he obliged with his neat kick-out on the 8. But here, where holding 'em was imperative for TCU, Tom Fillion broke loose for 17 yards on a third-down-seven-to-go-play ... Kentucky held the ball, put TCU in the hole with the kick and Bartosh was spilled for losses.

1956 COTTON BOWL

Mississippi 14, TCU 13 · Jan. 2, 1956

DALLAS — The University of Mississippi Rebels, champions of the Southeastern Conference, spotted the TCU Horned Frogs, champions of the Southwest Conference, 13 points in the 20th annual Cotton Bowl football game before 75,000 spectators here this warm and sunny Monday afternoon and then swung back to win by the margin of a single point, 14-13 ... (TCU) actually lost the game for being in motion on a conversion effort.

They made the 14th point on the first try, but because a player was in motion, they had to try again from five yards farther back, and missed. They probably lost the game on the opening kickoff when quarterback Chuck Curtis made the mistake of receiving and running with the ball. He was so badly injured when tackled that he never returned to action ... In spite of the handicap, the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown in the first quarter and counted in the second to lead 13-0 before the Rebels got their first touchdown to make it 13-7 at the half ... Mississippi won the game in the 11th minute of the fourth quarter ... Billy Lott scored on a five-yard gallop around his right wing. The Rebs' winning move traveled exactly the same distance as their first touchdown parade: 66 yards ... The Frogs went 44 and 75 yards for their touchdowns.

1957 COTTON BOWL

TCU 28, Syracuse 27 · Jan. 1, 1957

DALLAS — Harold Pollard's four-for-four conversions and the blocking of Syracuse's third point-after-touchdown attempt by (Chico) Mendoza produced a 28-27 Cotton Bowl victory for TCU after 18 years of waiting. The Frogs had dropped five successive bowl appearances and had not recorded a post-season triumph since 1939. It was a moving offensive show all the way with the TCU passing providing a balance Syracuse couldn't stop and the Saltine Warriors riding powerfully on a running game spearheaded by the All-America halfback, Jim Brown. He gained 132 yards and was voted the game's outstanding back. The Frogs' All-American tackle, Norman Hamilton, was the one defender who came nearest to stopping Brown consistently and he was chosen as the game's outstanding lineman.

Syracuse scored in the last two minutes to give the game its touch of such hair-breadth closeness. For much of the afternoon it was TCU's game and a couple of times seemed on the verge of turning decisive.

There was a unique twist to the first-half scoring in that each team intercepted passes and then drove 70 yards to score and each recovered fumbles and pushed out short yardage for the second touchdowns.

1959 COTTON BOWL

TCU 0, Air Force 0 · Jan. 1, 1959

DALLAS — The gentlemen operating the scoreboard had the easiest occupation in all land as the Southwest Conference champions (TCU) and the future generals (Air Force Academy) from Colorado Springs played the second 0-0 deadlock in the 23-year history of the New Year's Day classic ... It was the fourth tie game ever unreeled before a Cotton Bowl assemblage ... It was a disappointing final for both clubs. The Horned Frogs took the field bearing an 8-2 record. The Falcons were unbeaten in 10 games and had their season immaculate but for a tie with Iowa. The Frogs fumbled the ball on eight occasions and on three of these wasted possession. One of these came early in the final period and surely tried the composure of Coach Abe Martin as he saw the Falcons reclaim a bobble just eight steps from the Air Force Academy's end zone.

The field, covered by tarpaulin during the snow fall earlier in the week, was damp and contributed to the uneasy handling of the ball. The visiting Falcons also had difficulty retaining the sphere and lost control on three of their five fumbles. Jack Spikes attempted both of TCU's field goals, the first early in the opening period ... The Airmen offered their severest threat midway of the second quarter ... It was here that the Frog line gave its best performance, restraining the Silver and Blue on the six, the spot from where George Pupich missed a field goal.

1959 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Clemson 23, TCU 7 · Dec. 19, 1959

HOUSTON — The Frogs were drowned, 23-7, by a deadly sprinkle of Clemson passes in a seven-minute period of the final quarter ... The sudden Clemson scoring flood washed away a 7-3 lead TCU carried into the fatal final period. A narrow margin, but one that, at the time, appeared enough to send the luckless Tigers down to their fourth straight bowl defeat ... Neither team had threatened seriously after Clemson's second quarter 22-yard field goal by Lon Armstrong, and TCU's lone touchdown, a 19-yard pass from Jack Redding to Harry Moreland with 5:45 left in the first half. Clemson had completed only one gaining pass all afternoon, that a 5-yard throw from Tiger quarterback Harvey White.

White must have spotted the silver lining in the gathering darkness for Tiger hopes. He took plenty of time behind the mammoth line and arched a long, high shot toward right end Gary Barnes, racing past TCU's Larry Dawson at the Frog 35. Armstrong added the extra point ... Two plays after the kickoff, Armstrong lassoed a pass from TCU quarterback Donald George ... From there, Lowndes Shingler, overwhelmingly voted outstanding back, came back to guide the Tigers for the final slap on the cheek to a proud TCU team which had gained wide respect as the class of the Southwest Conference, winning seven games to finish in a 3-way tie for the title.

1965 SUN BOWL

Texas Western 13, TCU 12 · Dec. 19, 1965

EL PASO, Texas. — The Miners sulked off the field with a 10-point deficit at the intermission, but then pumped up Billy Stevens' arm and Joe Cook's foot and eventually deflated the Frogs, 13-12. Stevens, who gained second rank among the nation's passers this season, proved his stardom to TCU by racking up 208 yards on 21 pass completions, the most ever against an Abe Martin team. The skinny sophomore had only seven strikes in the first half as the ball-controlling Frogs rammed into a 10-0 lead. Stevens made the 31st annual post season game a vastly different story in the second half.

Stevens shot a 34-yard touchdown pass to 165-pound flanker Chuck Hughes and a startling comeback was begun ... The Miners drove 70 yards for a tying 21-yard field goal by Cook... Texas Western, a raging defensive team by this time, hopped on a TCU fumble at the Frog 29.

Cook kicked an 18-yard three-pointer FG four plays deep in the final period to boot the Miners into a 13-10 cushion. TCU's final two points were a gift. With 43 seconds left in the game ... The Miner quarterback raced back in his end zone for a safety ... The Frogs got their last chance. They could get only eight yards before the clock ran out.

Although Stevens won the great air race in the end, TCU's senior quarterback, Kent Nix got a head start.

David Smith hauling in Nix's 11-yard pass for the score ... The Frogs had another scoring opportunity in the first period ... (Bruce) Alford missed a kick from the 28.

1984 BLUBONNET BOWL

West Virginia 31, TCU 14 · Dec. 31, 1984

HOUSTON — What had promise of being the exciting finish to an "unbelievable" season turned closer to a nightmare ... at least until TCU's dramatic, fourth-quarter comeback restored some degree of respect to the outcome in the 25th edition of the Bluebonnet Bowl. The final score was West Virginia 31, TCU 14. But for the Horned Frogs there were lots of dips and swerves along the way. For starters, a 21-point West Virginia blitz during a 14-minute span of the first half had somewhat of a sobering effect on the Purples. So did the loss of All-American running back Kenneth Davis, to a knee injury, in the early moments of the postseason classic.

After being shoved up and down the field by the Mountaineers' offense (355 yards), while countering with little punch themselves (148 yards) during the first 30 minutes, the Horned Frogs did make a contest of it after the intermission, scoring the only touchdown of the second half while mounting a couple of other drives which nearly resulted in points. Much of TCU's second half turnaround was due to the passing arm of senior Anthony Gulley who finished with 150 yards passing including TD tosses to Dan Sharp and Keith Burnett. Senior receiver James Maness caught five passes for 90 yards but was no match statistically for the six-catch, 152-yard performance of WVU lightning bug.

1994 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Virginia 20, TCU 10 · Dec. 28, 1994

SHREVEPORT, La. — A decade slipped by before TCU's Horned Frogs re-surfaced from oblivion into the post-season... The Frogs mostly slipped however, as they trudged and muddied themselves on the rain-drenched field of Independence Stadium... Some 27,242 fans – a majority of them TCU supporters – withstood the temptation to stay home ... The view became painstakingly clear no matter the vantage point ... Virginia proved too good for these upstart Frogs and captured its first bowl triumph in five attempts since 1987 with the 20-10 victory ... "We can't use the field as an excuse in any way," TCU coach Pat Sullivan said. "I couldn't be more proud of our football team, but we weren't quite good enough in a couple of ways."

The 15th-ranked Cavaliers (9-3) dominated at the point of attack, where so many games will be won or lost ... The Frogs and their Southwest Conference-leading offense, which averaged 411.6 yards per game during the regular season, sustained nothing on this chilly, wet night. Virginia, which entered the contest with the nation's No. 1-ranked defensive unit against the run, surrendered only 191 yards and 11 first downs to the Frogs.

The running of junior tailback Andre Davis, who rushed for 97 yards on 24 carries, failed to provide enough offense on a night when (quarterback Max) Knake struggled. "The truth of it is I played terrible," said Knake. "If I could have played better, there may have been a different outcome."

1998 SUN BOWL

TCU 28, USC 19 · Dec. 31, 1998

EL PASO, Texas — With only six wins, many thought TCU was not worthy of a bowl appearance. But, the Horned Frogs proved their critics wrong in a big way.

Basil Mitchell rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns on only 19 carries as TCU earned its first bowl victory in 41 years with a 28-19 win over USC in the 65th Sun Bowl.

Quarterback Patrick Batteaux added 94 yards and two scores for TCU, which recorded its first post-season win since defeating Syracuse in the 1957 Cotton Bowl.

TCU (7-5) dominated the line of scrimmage, rushing for 314 yards while holding USC to a Sun Bowl record minus-23, breaking by two yards the mark set by Florida State in 1951. The Trojans (8-5) also posted the lowest rushing total in school history, eclipsing the previous record of minus-11 yards against Iowa in 1976.

Mitchell fell just short of Charles Alexander's Sun Bowl rushing record of 197 yards. He opened the scoring with a three-yard run 7:07 into the first quarter.

True freshman Carson Palmer completed 17-of-28 passes for a season-best 280 yards to rally USC.

The Horned Frogs put away the game by chewing more than six minutes off the clock before pinning USC inside its 15 with less than two minutes remaining.

1999 MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL

TCU 28, East Carolina 14 · Dec. 22, 1999

MOBILE, Ala. — LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 124 yards and two touchdowns to lead TCU to a 28-14 victory over No. 20 East Carolina in the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl.

It was the second consecutive bowl upset for TCU (8-4). East Carolina (9-3) entered the game as six-point favorites.

That didn't bother the Horned Frogs, who completely shut down the Pirates' running game, holding them to minus-16 yards.

East Carolina went into the game focusing on stopping Tomlinson, whose 1,850 yards edged Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne for the NCAA Division I rushing title.

TCU, which alternated between quarterbacks Casey Printers and Patrick Batteaux, made it impossible for the Pirates to adjust.

Early in the first quarter, Printers gained seven yards on an option run to move TCU to the 2. Batteaux, a senior who runs the option better than Printers, came in on the next play and pitched the ball to Tomlinson, who ran in for the touchdown. That tied the game at 7 and TCU slowly pulled away from there.

East Carolina, which couldn't run the ball at all against TCU, had to go to the air in the second half.

It initially worked, but early in the fourth quarter, Russell Gary intercepted Garrard's pass and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. That gave TCU a 28-14 lead with 14:04 to play.

Southern Miss 28, TCU 21 · Dec. 20, 2000

MOBILE, Ala. — Jeff Kelly's 28-yard touchdown pass to freshman Kenny Johnson with eight seconds left lifted Southern Miss to a 28-21 victory over No. 13 TCU in the Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In the first major bowl game of the season, TCU tailback LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 118 yards, his lowest total of the season. The Heisman Trophy finalist carried 28 times and scored two TDs in the third quarter.

Southern Miss (8-4) got a second chance after a fourth missed field goal, and trusted their senior quarterback instead of the shaky kicking game.

With 33 seconds left, they took over at the TCU 43-yard line after Mobile native Etric Pruitt got a hand on John Braziel's punt. Kelly threw two incompletions, then scrambled 14 yards for a first down. On the next play, he lofted a perfect strike over the middle just above safety LaVar Veale's outstretched arm, victimizing the nation's top defense.

The Horned Frogs (10-2) endured a December coaching change and uncertainty over who would lead them into the game. In the end, former defensive coordinator Gary Patterson replaced Dennis Franchione on the sidelines. Franchione left for Alabama Dec. 1 and was initially expected to coach the bowl game. TCU officials decided late last week to allow the Patterson era to begin a season early.

Texas A&M 28, TCU 9 · Dec. 28, 2001

HOUSTON — Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU (6-6) in the galleryfurniture .com Bowl.

The Aggies (8-4) beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times.

Jones earned MVP honors and also was the defensive player of the game with three tackles. Starting in place of injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frog 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance but Jones had a 15-yard interception to the TCU 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Mark Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half for a 7-7 tie. It was the second longest fumble return in school history.

2002 AXA LIBERTY BOWL

TCU 17, Colorado State 3 · Dec. 31, 2002

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — TCU figured out how to stop Colorado State standout Cecil Sapp after just two runs in the Liberty Bowl.

Sapp reeled off big gains of 59 and 25 yards on the Rams' first two possessions, but had 22 yards the rest of the game, and TCU tailback Ricky Madison stole the show with 111 yards rushing and a touchdown as the Horned Frogs beat No. 23 Colorado State 17-3 Tuesday.

It was the Horned Frogs' 500th victory in school history.

Madison ran for 107 of his yards in the rainy second half as TCU's offense came alive after a sloppy opening by both teams.

In the first half, the teams combined for three lost fumbles, two interceptions, a missed field goal and an unsuccessful faked field goal. Their sloppy play made for the lowest scoring first half of a Liberty Bowl since Penn State led Tulane 6-0 in 1979.

TCU (10-2) finally put together a seven-play, 62-yard scoring drive led by Lonta Hobbs in the closing minutes of the second quarter. The freshman ran for 39 yards in the drive, capped when Sean Stilley threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to LaTarence Dunbar with 1:21 remaining to put TCU up 7-0 at the break.

The Rams were held to 89 yards rushing - compared with 197 for TCU - for their lowest total of the season. TCU also outgained Colorado State 338-149.

2003 PLAINSCAPITAL FORT WORTH BOWL

Boise State 34, TCU 31 · Dec. 22, 2003

FORT WORTH — Ryan Dinwiddie, who ended his career as the most efficient passer in college football, threw for 325 yards and three touchdowns to lead the No. 18 Broncos (13-1) to a 34-31 win Tuesday night over No. 19 TCU in the inaugural Fort Worth Bowl.

Their bowl win on TCU's campus wasn't secured until sophomore Mike Wynn was well short on a 51-yard field goal attempt, the first kick in his college career, with 7 seconds left.

TCU (11-2) had its school-record 13-game home winning streak snapped. The Frogs had been in contention for a Bowl Championship Series spot until their only regular-season loss Nov. 20 and then turned down an invitation to last week's GMAC Bowl because it conflicted with exams.

Dinwiddie hit 19 of 35 passes with two interceptions, but his last touchdown was an 18-yarder to Derek Schouman for the winning score with 12:43 left.

"I thought we beat them on both sides of the football. Three big plays beat us," TCU coach Gary Patterson said. "There's a reason they've won a lot of games."

No. 14 TCU 27, Iowa State 24 · Dec. 31, 2005

HOUSTON — Peter LoCoco hit a 44-yard field goal with 5:25 left in the game to put TCU on top 27-24 and the Frogs' defense held Iowa State in check on the ensuing drive for the victory at Reliant Stadium.

The TCU defense forced four Iowa State turnovers and Robert Merrill reached the century mark in rushing yards for the 10th time in his career as he ran for 109 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown to help lead the Frogs to the win.

TCU scored on its opening two possessions for a 14-0 lead just 6:36 into the contest. The two touchdowns came in a 1:55 span.

The Horned Frogs took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays, capped by a 20-yard Merrill touchdown run.

On the second play of Iowa State's ensuing possession, Jeremy Modkins forced a fumble that was recovered by Drew Coleman, giving the Frogs possession at the Cyclone 21. Three plays later, an Aaron Brown 7-yard scoring run extended TCU's lead to 14-0.

Iowa State scored 17 points in a 4:30 stretch of the second quarter to take a 17-14 lead with 10:30 left in the first half.

The Cyclones' third turnover of the first half, a fumble recovery by David Roach, led to the Frogs going back on top. The first snap of TCU's ensuing series saw Jeff Ballard connect on an 84-yard touchdown pass to Michael DePriest to give the Frogs a 21-17 lead with 4:05 left in the half.

2006 SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL

#25 TCU 37, No. Illinois 7 · Dec. 19, 2006

SAN DIEGO — Penned in by a bunch of tough Horned Frogs, Garrett Wolfe had nowhere to run.

The national rushing leader was held to 28 yards, a whopping 130 below his average, and No. 25 TCU won a Poinsettia Bowl mismatch against Northern Illinois 37-7.

While Wolfe was repeatedly stuffed by one of the nation's best defenses, led by end Tommy Blake, Horned Frogs quarterback Jeff Ballard ran for three touchdowns and threw for another.

Ballard looked like more of a running back as he scored on runs of 10, 1 and 6 yards. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to tight end Brent Hecht and finished with 258 passing yards.

TCU's Lonta Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and one TD.

Wolfe came in leading the nation with an average of 158.3 yards rushing and 178.9 all-purpose yards.

The Horned Frogs, though, were fourth nationally in run defense after allowing only 67.6 yards per game. TCU kept alive its string of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, one of only four teams to do so this year.

Wolfe, who carried 20 times, came dangerously close to his career-low of 24 yards set in his first game, the 2004 season opener. The Huskies had only five first downs and 60 yards of total offense, compared to 23 first downs and 456 yards for TCU.

2007 TEXAS BOWL

TCU 20, Houston 13 · Dec. 28, 2007

HOUSTON — Justin Watts had scored exactly one touchdown in his career at TCU before the Texas Bowl.

TD No. 2 marked the go-ahead touchdown early in the fourth quarter to help TCU to a 20-13 win over Houston.

The junior wove through the defense and danced into the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 and gave TCU (8-5) its first lead of the game against its old Southwest Conference rival.

He and Ryan Christian split carries against Houston (8-5) after starter Joseph Turner injured his knee in the first quarter and didn't return.

Quarterback Andy Dalton also ran for a touchdown for TCU. Dalton was 21-of-30 for 249 yards with one interception. Watts and Christian combined for 88 yards rushing on 12 carries.

A 15-yard leaping reception by Jimmy Young on third down kept the drive that ended in Watts' touchdown going. Young outjumped Carson Blackmon to grab the ball and managed to keep his left leg in bounds as he landed. It was initially ruled an incomplete pass, but the call was overturned after a review by officials.

The Cougars had a chance to tie it with less than 30 seconds to play but Case Keenum's pass sailed just beyond the fingertips of Jeron Harvey in the end zone. He had two more shots at the end zone, but the ball fell short on the first one and Chase Ortiz hit him as he threw the second one to end the game.

GREAT MOMENTS IN TCU HISTORY

TCU QB SHATTERS RECORD BOOK

It was a record-setting day for TCU when the Horned Frogs stood toe-to-toe with the 1990 Houston Cougars, who had one of the most prolific offenses ever in college football.

Houston eventually rolled past TCU, 56-35, but not before countless records – school, conference and NCAA – were broken.

Frogs' quarterback Matt Vogler helped account for nine of those shattered marks.

His 690 yards passing set new school, conference and NCAA records. He also helped the Frogs set the most yards offense by a losing team (736). Along with his Cougar counterpart, David Klingler, Vogler helped set records for combined total offense (1,563) and most yards passing by opposing teams (1,253) – both SWC and NCAA marks.

Vogler still holds three TCU records for passing – all were set in that 1990 game at The Astrodome.

The previous NCAA mark for passing yards in a game was held by Utah's Scott Mitchell when he threw for 631 yards against Air Force in 1988. Houston's Andre Ware held the conference record with 517-yard performance against SMU in 1989.

Vogler connected with eight different receivers, but Steven Shipley carried most of the load. He finished with 11 receptions and 154 yards – both career bests.

Vogler had two big strikes against Houston. He had an 80-yard TD pass in the first quarter and an 88-yard touchdown toss in the second quarter.

Vogler, who also holds the second-most passing yards in a game with 419, is 282 yards in front of No. 3 on the all-time list, Steve Stamp.

OLIVER SETS RECEIVING RECORD

Two big air strikes accounted for 151 of Jimmy Oliver's 206 yards in TCU's Southwest Conference showdown with Texas Tech in 1994, but it was his other five catches for a modest 55 yards that catapulted him into the Horned Frog record book.

Late in the fourth quarter, Oliver – who already had touchdown receptions of 89 and 62 yards – caught a two-yard pass from quarterback Max Knake to move ahead of Vernon Wells for the school's record for most receiving yards in a game.

Oliver's record-setting day, which was 12th best in the SWC at the time, helped lead TCU past Texas Tech, 24-17.

The 18-year-old record came under attack in the second quarter when Knake hit Oliver in stride at the Frogs' 30-yard line. The sprinter from Adamson High School in Dallas did the rest. He raced 89 yards to complete the one-play, 11-second drive.

That score gave TCU an early 10-0 advantage.

Oliver, who was well known for his blazing speed, was a Southwest Conference indoor 55-meter and 55-meter hurdles champion. There was a rumor that he clocked a 4.15 in the 40-yard dash on one occasion.

His speed showed up again in the third quarter, when Oliver and Knake teamed up for a 62-yard strike down the middle of the Red Raider defense.

Oliver's second touchdown put TCU in front of Texas Tech, 16-14, but the Frogs had to rally again in the fourth quarter to defeat the Red Raiders in front of 43,219.

Before Wells set the record of 204 yards in 1976 versus Tennessee, TCU's receiving record was 37 years old. Earl Clark held the mark that Wells broke, 177 yards on 10 catches, since 1939. He set the record against Temple.

LT RUNS LOOSE AGAINST MINERS

LaDainian Tomlinson broke the NCAA Division I-A rushing record, gaining 406 yards and scoring six touchdowns in TCU's 52-24 victory over Texas-El Paso.

Tomlinson carried 43 times and topped the record held by Tony Sands of Kansas, who rushed for 396 yards on 58 carries against Missouri on Nov. 23, 1991.

"All the credit goes to the offensive line. They've done a great job of creating holes all season," Tomlinson said. "I need to buy them a couple of steaks."

While Tomlinson is the first major-college rusher to gain 400 yards in a game, he is the sixth overall in the NCAA. The record is 441 yards by Dante Brown of Division III Marietta College in 1996.

Touchdown runs of 70 and 63 yards on consecutive carrries in the fourth quarter got Tomlinson close to the record. So even with a 45-25 lead, TCU sent him back out for its final drive of the game, and he broke the 400-yard barrier with a seven-yard carry.

"If he's so close to something like that, you've got to let him finish it off," said TCU coach Dennis Franchione. "After three first-half turnovers, I was a little punchy about what to call in the second half. The smart thing to do was to give the ball to No. 5."

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

VICTOR BOSCHINI

CHANCELLOR

Sixth year at TCU

Working to Provide a World-Class, Values-Centered University Experience

Entering his sixth year at Texas Christian University, Chancellor Victor J. Boschini, Jr., is focused on one goal: providing TCU students the finest educational experience possible — both inside and outside the classroom.

And he'll go the distance to see this happens. In fact, 4,700 miles — the distance between the Metroplex and London, where he and his wife, Megan, took part in the first-ever study-abroad Frog Camp this summer with 36 incoming students. On the home front, the Boschinis can frequently be seen in the stands of Amon G. Carter Stadium and the seats of the Jerita Foley Buschman Theatre.

The Chancellor also keeps his finger on the pulse of the campus by teaching a course, A New Paradigm for Leadership, in the College of Education. It's a natural. He not only holds the rank of professor of education, but also brings an extensive background in higher education administration to the classroom.

Another place where you can often find Chancellor Boschini is the Brown-Lupton University Union in the Campus Commons. With the union's August opening, TCU moved closer to realizing one of its most ambitious dreams, a "24/7" living/learning community. Open day and night, the Commons is becoming the center of a vibrant social, cultural and intellectual life for students, faculty and staff.

In addition to opening the University Union and eight other new living/learning facilities in the past calendar year, TCU has added a substantial number of faculty and instructional positions over recent years, striving to move the already low 14:1 student/faculty ratio to 13:1.

These ambitious initiatives are a result of Vision in Action, a major strategic planning effort Dr. Boschini launched after becoming TCU's 10th chancellor in 2003. From this planning process grew the vision of creating a world-class, values-centered university experience. The Campaign for TCU is making that vision a reality. The public phase of the $250 million fund-raising effort was launched in April and already totals more than $175 million.

"Gifts from the campaign are making a tremendous difference throughout the campus," the Chancellor reports. "From newly endowed chairs and professorships to scholarships for deserving students to our wonderful new facilities, our remarkable progress is underwritten by the generosity of many, many TCU supporters throughout the country.

"That's why one of my great pleasures is advocating across the nation and the globe for The Campaign for TCU. I truly enjoy meeting with the University's alumni and friends, explaining our vision and paving the path for new support."

As chair of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Independent Colleges & Universities (NAICU), Chancellor Boschini also advocates in Congress for 1,000 independent colleges and universities across the nation. He participates on the Mountain West Conference's Executive Board as past chair and is a member of the board of State Farm Company Mutual Funds.

Chancellor and Mrs. Boschini are the parents of "four very active kids" who love sports and the arts. Elizabeth and Mary are both Horned Frogs. Edward is in his first year of high school, and Margaret is in seventh grade this fall.

After five years in Fort Worth, Chancellor Boschini has "pretty much embraced all things Texan." A member of the boards of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra and the Van Cliburn Foundation, he says, "It's my privilege to take an active role in as many community ventures as possible.

"After all, TCU is Fort Worth's school."

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

DANNY MORRISON
ATHLETICS DIRECTOR
Fourth year at TCU

Only the Sixth Athletics Director in TCU History and the Only A.D. in the Frogs' Mountain West Conference Era

Dr. Daniel B. Morrison, hired on May 19, 2005 by TCU Chancellor Dr. Victor J. Boschini Jr., previously served four years as commissioner of the Southern Conference.

During his first three years at TCU, Morrison has helped usher in the Horned Frogs' Mountain West Conference era. An equestrian national title and 16 conference regular season and tournament championships have been won. In the 2007-08 athletics season, 15 of 20 sports were represented in NCAA postseason play by either teams or individuals. Three coaches received MWC Coach of the Year honors.

Through the efforts of the Athletic Academic Services Office, momentum is evident in the classroom. Three of the last four semesters have seen TCU student-athletes post their highest collective grade-point average since the department began tracking the scores in 1999. Over 50 percent of student-athletes had GPAs over 3.0 in the spring 2008 semester, including 27 percent at 3.5 or higher.

Thanks to the support of the TCU community, Frog Club donations continue to reach record levels with $4.3 million in the 2008 fiscal year. When combined with giving to TCU in both capital and endowment projects, Frog supporters have contributed over $28 million the last two years with that number reaching nearly $35 million over three years.

Interest in TCU athletics continues, resulting in two straight years of all-time highs in departmental revenue. Football season-ticket sales have set records the last two seasons, while the baseball program established single game, series and season marks for attendance in 2008.

Also on the business end, TCU and ISP Sports entered into a partnership that provides the national leader in collegiate sports marketing with primary multi-media rights to TCU Athletics over a seven-year period.

Helping lead the way in the endowment area has been Ron Parker and his wife Paula. They made a commitment to fully endow an athletic scholarship for the tight end position on the Frog football team. It's the first fully endowed position scholarship for any sport at TCU. The momentum from the Parkers' gift extends into continued facility improvements.

Work is nearing completion on the $13 million Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center in the south end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium. The project will include six suites, 250 club seats, meeting and hospitality rooms, and an increased academic area for TCU student-athletes.

Last year's facility upgrades featured the installation of LED scoreboards in the home venues for basketball, volleyball, swimming and diving, tennis and soccer. There were also new LED scorers' tables and video boards at the Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, as well as LED panels on the Dave E. Bloxum Sr. Scoreboard in Amon G. Carter Stadium.

In spring 2007, a new scoreboard was unveiled at the Lowdon Track and Field Complex and the $7 million Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility was officially dedicated. The Jane and John Justin Foundation and the Cox Family made the indoor facility a reality.

Other recent facility improvements include the installation of football film towers as well as soccer lights at Garvey-Rosenthal Stadium. Additionally, new scoreboards were installed for baseball at Lupton Stadium and track and field at the Lowdon Track and Field Complex.

Upgrading facilities remains a focus for the future. Clarence Scharbauer is chairman of the Amon G. Carter Stadium committee examining various alternatives and options for the historical stadium. The Amon Carter Foundation provided a lead gift of $15 million for renovations.

As the seventh commissioner of the Southern Conference, the nation's fifth-oldest Division I collegiate athletic association, Morrison established numerous progressive initiatives including strategic partnerships with corporate and educational entities; a stronger television schedule for Southern Conference schools through partnerships with ESPN, College Sports Television (CSTV) and Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS); an internship program in conjunction with NFL Europe; and coordination of the conference's strategic planning efforts with the NCAA.

Morrison also presided over the first and second rounds of the 2002 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship hosted by the SoCon in Greenville, S.C.; instituted the SoCon's Distinguished Service Award program; tripled the number of post-graduate scholarships distributed by the league; and increased the number of students recognized with weekly, monthly and annual awards.

Prior to serving as Southern Conference commissioner, Morrison was senior vice president of Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C., from 1997 to 2001 and director of athletics for Wofford from 1985 to 1997.

A native of Burlington, N.C., Morrison attended Wofford, where he lettered four years in basketball and graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa in 1975 with a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics. He obtained a Master of Education degree in administration and supervision from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1981, and a doctorate in educational leadership from the University of South Carolina in 2000.

Honors during Morrison's career include being named Wofford's 1992 Young Alumnus of the Year and the University of South Carolina's 2002 Higher Education Department's Alumnus of the Year. He also entered the Wofford Athletics Hall of Fame in 2002.

Morrison and his wife, Peggy, have two children: Trey, a graduate of the University of South Carolina, and Meg, who received her degree from Wofford.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS
Requests for official working media credentials should be directed to the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office. All credential requests must be submitted on official news outlet letterhead, and such requests should be received no later than noon, two days prior to the game. For more information, contact TCU Athletics Media Relations at (817) 257-7969 or (817) 257-5394.

Season credentials will be mailed prior to the first game. No credentials will be mailed after Tuesday preceding the game. Thereafter, credentials may be picked up on game day at the media will-call located at the Press Elevator entrance under the West stands at Amon G. Carter Stadium. Weekly print media and non-reporting radio-TV representatives have least priority to media reservations.

MEDIA PARKING
Media receiving credentials for TCU's home football games are also provided convenient parking privileges. However, parking may be limited at times. The media parking lot is located on the lower parking lot, just southwest of Amon G. Carter Stadium. Access is gained from Bellaire Drive North.

WIRELESS INTERNET
Wireless Internet is available in the Amon G. Carter Stadium Press Box as well as for postgame filing in the Special Events Room of the John Justin Athletic Center.Please see a media relations representative for a user name and password.

TELEPHONE UNITS
Several credit card accessible telephone units are available to visiting writers along press row. Media members wishing for a dedicated line should make their own arrangements through TCU Connect at 817-257-4357.

MEDIA ELEVATOR
The media entrance to the Amon G. Carter Stadium Press Box is via the media (old) elevator located under the West stands.

WEEKLY NOTES, RELEASES, STATS
All TCU game notes, media releases and statistics can be found on the department's website at www.gofrogs.com.

RADIO BROADCASTS
Three (3) pots and one (1) ISDN hook-up are available in the visiting radio booth. In addition, there is a dry-pair located in the visiting team locker room for use during post-game interviews. The visitor's radio booth is located on the south end of the lower press box level (writer's level). The TCU/ISP Sports Network is located on the upper press box level. Additional lines should be ordered through TCU Connect at (817) 257-4357.

TELEVISION
TCU's live television appearances will be governed by the existing Mountain West Conference policy and association. All nonconference television appearances originating from Amon G. Carter Stadium must be approved by TCU Athletics Director Danny Morrison. Those TV production crews planning to telecast TCU games may contact the TCU Media Relations Office for suggestions of catering services to handle production crew's game day meal arrangements, as these crews are not served through TCU's pre-game media meal service. For information concerning electrical power, hookups and other similar needs, contact TCU Associate Athletics Director Ross Bailey at r.bailey@tcu.edu or (817) 257-7009. The TCU Physical Plant can also be of assistance at (817) 257-7955.

TIMEOUT POLICY
All electronic timeouts will be scheduled in accordance with Mountain West Conference-approved guidelines.

SCOUTING PASSES
Professional scouts may obtain credentials through TCU's Media Relations Office. Scouts will be issued credentials to the press box on a space-available basis.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
Complete stats, scoring summaries, running play-by-play, quickie stats and post-game notes and quotes are provided by the TCU Media Relations Office. Pre-game food service is available beginning approximately two hours prior to kickoff, while beverages are available throughout the contest. This service is provided as a courtesy to working media. In addition, concession areas are available within the stadium confines.

JUST TCU, THANK YOU!

AP, NCAA, ABC, CBS, NBC, AFCA. And, TCU Athletics.

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Ditto regarding references to its sports teams: TCU football, TCU baseball, TCU golf, etc.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully urge that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation – TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

WORLD WIDE WEB
More information on TCU football, as well as all Horned Frog games, can be accessed on the internet at www.gofrogs.com.

LOCKER ROOMS
The TCU locker room is closed, both at home and on the road. The visiting team's post-game press conference is held just outside the visiting locker room area located at the southwest corner of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS
Following an approximate 10-minute cooling-off period, TCU coach Gary Patterson and requested players will conduct interviews in the media room located in the John Justin Athletic Center. Following road games, Patterson and requested players will be available outside the visitor's locker room. Post-game interviews should be arranged through a member of the TCU Athletics Media Relations staff. For home games, Horned Frog coach Gary Patterson and selected players will be brought to the Player Lounge in the John Justin Athletic Center. Enter through the weight room area located in the Walsh Complex. Admission to the post-game press conferences are limited to those individuals holding media credentials issued by the TCU Media Relations Office.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Field photographers must wear a photo armband in plain sight at all times. Photographers may obtain armbands in exchange for their sideline-photo credentials. This exchange may be made at either the bottom of the elevator prior to the game or on level one of the press box by a member of the TCU Media Relations staff. These sideline credentials are limited to representatives of daily newspapers, wire services, television camera persons, specially-approved publications and those persons on assignment from the TCU Media Relations Office. Only those photographers on assignment will be authorized credentials. Space does not allow for free-lancers. NCAA rules limit photographers to restraining lines clearly marked on the field. Photographers uncertain of sideline restrictions should seek clarification from a member of the TCU Media Relations staff. Photographers desiring to work from the photo deck will be issued passes and may use the non-reserved photo deck location of the Amon G. Carter Stadium press box.

COVERING PRACTICE
The TCU football team typically conducts workouts between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m, Tuesday through Thursday. Normally, the Frogs do not practice on Monday. Walk-thrus on Friday are closed. All remaining practices are generally open, unless otherwise specified, and interested media are invited to attend. Photographers – both print and electronic – are welcome to TCU workouts but must adhere to restrictions of photo location and availability at the practice site. TV crews and photographers are permitted to shoot practice only after receiving clearance from the Media Relations Office.

INTERVIEWS WITH COACH PATTERSON
TCU coach Gary Patterson is available for telephone interviews between 2 and 3 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Interviews with Coach Patterson are coordinated through TCU Media Relations Director Mark Cohen at m.cohen@tcu.edu or (817) 257-5394. Patterson will also be available each Tuesday throughout the season at his weekly press luncheon in the Team Meeting Room of the Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex. The luncheons run from noon to 1 p.m. Patterson will also be available for comments following practice sessions.

INTERVIEWS WITH PLAYERS
All interviews must be coordinated through the TCU Media Relations Office. Media wishing to conduct player interviews are encouraged to do so at the TCU Football Media Luncheon each Tuesday (in season) in the Special Events Room in the John Justin Athletic Center. The luncheons run from noon until 1 p.m. Interviews may also be obtained before the players report to pre-practice meetings or at the conclusion of practice. To schedule an interview, contact the TCU Media Relations Office before 10 a.m. on the day you wish to conduct the interview. No player will be pulled from the practice field to conduct an interview. Home or cell numbers will not be made available to the media and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the Media Relations staff.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS
To arrange a telephone interview, contact the TCU Media Relations Office at least one day in advance so that ample time is given to notify the player or coach.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONF. MEDIA RELATIONS
Contact the Mountain West Conference Media Relations Department for any information or questions concerning football in the MWC. League information is available at www.themwc.com. The football contact is Javan Hedlund. He can be reached at jhedlund@themwc.com or (719) 488-4051.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONF. TELECONFERENCE
Coach Patterson will participate in the Mountain West Conference's weekly football coaches media teleconference each Tuesday, beginning Aug. 29. Coach Patterson's time slot is scheduled for 11:42 a.m. CT (10:42 a.m. MT and 9:42 a.m. PT). Interested media may access the teleconference by calling Javan Hedlund at the Mountain West Conference for more details.

TCU ON TELEVISION

TELEVISION PRESENCE

TCU football will have 10 of its 12 regular season games set for broadcast with the possibility of one additional contest airing.

Each of the Horned Frogs' 10 broadcasts are set for national television, including two of four non-conference matchups.

TCU set a single-season record in 2006 with 12 television appearances.

The 2008 season kicks off Aug. 30 at New Mexico on VERSUS, and the network will also air the Frogs' home meetings Oct. 16 against BYU and Nov. 22 against Air Force.

CBS College Sports is scheduled to cover four TCU road games, as the Frogs match up against SMU Sept. 20 in Dallas, Colorado State on Oct. 16 in Fort Collins, UNLV Nov. 1 in Las Vegas, and Utah Nov. 6 in Salt Lake City.

The Mountain West Sports Network (The Mtn.) will air TCU home matchups Sept. 13 against Stanford, Oct. 4 against San Diego State and Oct. 25 against Wyoming.

TCU's Sept. 20 contest with Oklahoma will have broadcast plans announced at a later date.

MWC TELEVISION PARTNERS

CBS COLLEGE SPORTS
CBS College Sports the 24-hour power in college sports, is the nation's leading digital and cable programming company dedicated to college sports. The network connects more fans to more college sports than any other company and is now available to more than 65 million households across the nation.

CBS College Sports will broadcast at least 11 MWC football games this year.

VERSUS
The Mountain West Conference and its member institutions comprise many of the country's legendary college football programs. The conference's teams are a showcase for some of the country's top college football talent, intense conference/regional rivalries, and never-say-die spirit on the field – serving as true role models of student/athletics with a commitment to sportsmanship. MWC Football exemplifies all the attributes of the VERSUS competitive gene.

The 2008 MWC Football on VERSUS schedule kicks off Aug. 30 with TCU's road trip to league rival New Mexico. In total, VERSUS will carry eight college football telecasts featuring MWC schools.

THE MTN. –
MOUNTAIN WEST SPORTS NETWORK
The Mtn. - MountainWest Sports Network is the first network dedicated to a collegiate athletic conference. The Mtn. provides sports fans blanket coverage of MWC athletics across multiple sports. The Mtn. features more MWC games on television than ever before, including 30 live MWC football games, 75 live men's basketball games, 23 live women's basketball games, conference championships and men's and women's Olympic sports.

TCU ON THE RADIO

ISP SPORTS NETWORK

On July 1, 2006, TCU reached a seven-year agreement with ISP Sports, the national leader in collegiate sports marketing, that provides the company with primary multi-media rights to TCU Athletics.

With the partnership, ISP Sports receives the rights to all sales and marketing opportunities associated with Horned Frog sports, including the TCU radio network for all sports, print advertising in various athletic department publications, promotions and all signage in TCU athletics facilities.

"ISP is nationally recognized for its excellence in multi-media sports marketing, and we are excited to begin a relationship with such an outstanding company," said TCU Director of Athletics Danny Morrison. "We have been most impressed with the ISP team, and we look forward to a productive seven years."

TCU is one of nearly 60 major NCAA athletic program to align itself with ISP Sports.

The unique TCU/ISP partnership provides comprehensive play-by-play coverage of TCU Athletics. Thanks in part to a multi-year agreement between TCU and Metroplex-based 100,000-watt 103.3 ESPN, the Horned Frog faithful and nearly six million people throughout the region will have access to every Horned Frog football and men's basketball game. The TCU/ISP Sports Network broadcasts can also be heard in Houston on 1070 AM KNTH and around the world via the internet on gofrogs.com.

The Gary Patterson Call-In Radio Show returns each Thursday from 6-7 p.m. The fast-paced show hosted by Brian Estridge, the Voice of the Frogs, features TCU players, coaches and fans. It's your chance to talk TCU football with the Head Coach of the Frogs.

TCU RADIO PERSONALITIES AND STAFF

Brian Estridge begins his second decade at TCU with insightful and entertaining play-by-play as the "Voice of the Horned Frogs" and Director of Broadcasting. In addition to his TCU radio responsibilities, Estridge has also provided play-by-play for numerous ESPNU and CBS/Westwood One radio productions. The Kershaw, S.C., native's radio career began at age 14 with stops along the way in South Carolina, North Carolina and Ohio where he served as the play-by-play voice of Miami (Ohio) University and Appalachian State University. His play-by-play has been honored by both the Texas Associated Press Broadcasters and the Press Club of Dallas as the best collegiate play-by-play in the state. He was one of three nominees in 1996 for North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year. Co-host of the popular "Galloway and Company" heard afternoons on TCU/ISP Sports Network flagship station 103.3 FM ESPN, Estridge graduated from Appalachian State with a B.S. in Political Communication. Estridge and his wife, Rebecca Ringer, and their children, Gaines and Ellie, reside in Colleyville.

John Denton returns to the TCU radio booth as the color analyst. The 2008 season marks the 20th year on the TCU/ISP Sports Network for the former Horned Frog kicker. Denton, who came to TCU as a walk-on, lettered four years as a kicker and punter for the Horned Frogs from 1981-84. He completed his career in the 1984 Bluebonnet Bowl. In 1983, only 11 of his 60 kickoffs were returned. Denton has drawn myriad broadcast assignments with Westwood One and CBS Radio Sports and their coverage of the NCAA Basketball Tournament, NFL Monday Night Football, NFL Playoffs and Major League Baseball's Game of the Week. In addition to his TCU football color analyst duties, Denton serves as analyst for TCU men's basketball and is a regular fixture on 103.3 ESPN's college and professional football coverage. He also has served as football analyst on ISP'S coverage of the MAC Championship game. In 2007, the All-American Football Foundation awarded Denton with its Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Broadcaster Award for excellence in broadcasting and dedication to the game of college football. Denton graduated from TCU in 1985 with a B.S. in broadcast journalism and serves as Director of the TCU Frog Club. Denton and his wife, Linda, reside in Southlake with their two daughters, Erin and Meredith.

Jeff Williams is back for his 10th season with the network. Serving as the play-by-play voice of TCU women's basketball since 1998, Williams began in 1999 as the sideline analyst for TCU radio and television broadcasts in football. He also provides play-by-play accounts for select men's basketball games. A current staff member at WBAP radio, Williams was the play-by-play voice of Penn State women's basketball from 1993-95. The former sports director of WMAJ in State College, Pa., Williams resides in Weatherford with his wife, Kathy, and their three children, Dustin, Abby and Jake.

Taylor Durham is in his third year as studio host. The 1996 Elon graduate has worked with ISP Sports as director of affiliate relations since March 2000.

Chuck Akin is in his first season as the network engineer for the TCU ISP Sports Network. Currently a remote coordinator for Cumulus Media, Akin previously worked four years with ISP Sports on the SMU men's basketball broadcasts. He has also assisted with the Dallas Desperados of the Arena Football League in addition to the football broadcasts for the University of Hawaii and Aledo High School. A graduate of the University of North Texas and a Frisco resident, Akin served four years in the U.S. Army. He and his wife, Jana, have two sons: Jacob and Jaxson.

Wayne Gossard is in his 18th season as a spotter for the TCU broadcasts. He is an independent oil producer, historian and leadership consultant. A graduate of SMU and the University of Oklahoma, Gossard and his wife, Lisa, have been married for 25 years and reside in Dallas.

Brian Sperry begins his 13th year as the game statistician for TCU football and his 19th overall keeping stats. He has also provided statistical assistance for Horned Frog men's basketball games the last eight years. In addition to his work with TCU, Sperry has also been the chief statistician for the Dallas Cowboys Radio Network while working with the Dallas Mavericks, CBS Radio, the Texas Longhorns and a host of other sports teams and media outlets. Sperry his wife, Tina, and their daughters Audrey, Lauren and Ella reside in McKinney.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West Conference has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. As the league celebrates its 10th anniversary in 2008-09, the MWC continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Over its nine-year history, the MWC has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

Progressive in its approach, the MWC has marked several achievements over its first decade of existence, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference. The Mountain West was the first to experiment with the coaches challenge in the college football instant replay system and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in and win a BCS bowl game when Utah defeated Pittsburgh in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The Mountain West was also the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively).

The Mountain West Conference is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Utah, BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West) and the Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State. The southwestern flavor of New Mexico complements the western heritage and culture of Fort Worth, Texas, home of the MWC's newest member, TCU.

HISTORY

The Mountain West Conference was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference.

The split from the former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Five of the MWC's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (BYU, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MWC in 1999. TCU rejoined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06, completing the Conference membership as it stands today.

When the MWC officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MWC football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Craig Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three years (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002. An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MWC engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

COMPLIANCE/RECRUITING INFORMATION

PROSPECTS

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE (PROSPECT)?

You are a prospect if you have started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, you may become a prospect if a university provides you (or your family or friends) any financial aid or other benefit that is not usually provided to prospective student-athletes.

HOW DO I KNOW IF I'M BEING RECRUITED?

There are several ways to be recruited: (1) A coach may provide you with an official paid visit to view the campus, (2) a coach may arrange an in-person, off-campus meeting with you (or your family), or (3) a coach or staff member may call you (or your family) on more than one occasion for the purpose of recruitment. Only coaches and athletic department staff can be involved in the recruiting process. Athletic representatives are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter or in person for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at TCU. Please contact the coaching staff if you know of a prospect that may have the interest and ability to participate in intercollegiate athletics at TCU. The coach can then take appropriate action.

WHAT IS A CONTACT?

A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent(s) or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange of greeting. NOTE: At the Division I level, athletic representatives (boosters) may not contact you for the purpose of recruiting.

WHAT CAN TCU OFFER YOU TO ATTEND?

You (or your family) may not receive any benefit, inducement, or arrangements (e.g. cash, clothing, cars, gifts, loans, etc…) to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent. TCU may offer you a one-year scholarship that covers room and board, tuition and fees, and required course-related books, or any part of these. TCU can recommend that this aid is renewed each year, as is the general practice at the institution, but this renewal is not guaranteed.

BOOSTERS

WHO IS A "BOOSTER"?

A "booster" is known in NCAA terms as a "representative of the institution's athletics interests." You become a booster if:

—you have ever been a member of any organization promoting TCU Athletics,
—you have ever made any type of donation to the Frog Club, TCU Athletics or any other TCU booster organization,
—you have ever assisted in evaluating or recruiting prospective student-athletes,
—you have ever assisted in providing benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families,
—you have promoted TCU Athletics in any other manner.

NCAA Bylaw 13.02.12.1 mandates that when you become a booster, you retain that identity for the rest of your life. As a representative of TCU's athletics interests, you are bound by NCAA rules. TCU is responsible for your actions.

INSTITUTIONAL CONTROL

"Institutional control" of Athletics is a fundamental requirement of NCAA rules. The NCAA constitution provides that each institution shall be responsible for ensuring that student-athletes, members of the institution's staff and other individuals or groups that represent the institution's athletics interests comply with all applicable NCAA regulations.

Because of the complexity of NCAA rules, this document does not include all applicable situations and should not be relied upon exclusively.

HORNED FROG STUDENT-ATHLETES

If Amon G. Carter Stadium could talk, the stories it would tell. All told, hundreds of games have been played inside its classic stone facade. Yet, the stadium stands silent, save for two Latin phrases etched in stone forever.

Mens Sana in Copore Sano…a sound mind in a sound body. From the very beginning, TCU athletics has empowered the student as well as the athlete in its quest for the best in intercollegiate athletics.

Crede Quod Habeus et Habes…believe that you can and you will. Indeed, TCU continues to compete–and win–at the highest level of collegiate athletics, sponsoring 20 varsity sports, 11 for women and nine for men.

That quest for balance–to develop the student as well as the athlete–is still true today at TCU.

In striving to prepare the student-athlete for the challenges of today's competitive world, TCU provides an academic support program that serves to enhance the collegiate experience of the student-athlete.

During the past year, TCU student-athletes did very well academically. The last two semesters have seen the highest grade-point averages by TCU student-athletes since the department began tracking the scores in 1999. Over half of the student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or better. In an effort to graduate well-rounded student-athletes, TCU athletics marketing has involved the students in various community outreach efforts, including Cook Children's Medical Center, Reading Frogs, the I Have a Dream Foundation and many other Fort Worth service projects.

Student-athletes have full access to the Academic Center located in the 38,000-square foot John Justin Athletic Center. This academic support area includes individual tutor rooms, group study rooms and a computer lab. The center provides student-athletes with much-needed academic space near their workout and competitive venues. The administration offices, including the athletic director's staff, as well as the football and compliance offices are located inside the Justin Center.

THE 1938 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP HORNED FROGS

TCU HONORS HISTORIC SEASON

The 2008 TCU football campaign commemorates the 70th anniversary of arguably the most historic season in the Horned Frogs' storied program.

Under legendary coach Dutch Meyer, TCU captured its second national championship in a four-year span. The Frogs were led by Heisman Trophy winner Davey O'Brien, the first football player from both TCU and the Southwest Conference to win college football's top individual honor. O'Brien's accolades also included the Maxwell Award and being named the Walter Camp Outstanding Football Player.

As any good quarterback will tell you, credit is due to the offensive line and O'Brien had plenty of help in that area. Center Ki Aldrich and tackle I.B. Hale were also first-team All-Americans and among the best to ever wear the TCU uniform. Eight Frogs were named All-Southwest Conference.

It was simply a dream season for the Frogs in 1938. TCU went 11-0 and capped its undefeated run with a 15-7 victory over fifth-ranked Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl.

The Frogs were No. 1 in every meaningful poll – AP, Williamson and Helms. TCU beat out three other 11-0 teams (Tennessee, Oklahoma, Duke) to sit atop each ranking system.

The 1938 squad remains the only undefeated and untied team in TCU history.

During their 10-0 regular season, the Frogs had just one game decided by less than 13 points – a 21-14 victory over Arkansas. Seven of the wins were by at least 21 points, including victories over Texas A&M (34-6), Baylor (39-7) and Texas (28-6).
